Victoria First To Be Given Defence Needs

Early Delivery Taken as Proof Region Held No. 1 Target Area

Greater Victoria will be the first area in Canada to receive civil defence equipment from the Federal Government.

Leonard G. Hatcher, co-ordinator, told the civil defence control board yesterday the material—enough to equip 300 persons—will arrive "almost immediately."

In the shipment will be gas masks, steel helmets, ground sheets, rubber boots, coveralls and other necessary equipment.

MORE TO COME

"Soon after, I expect delivery of additional equipment, possibly enough for 900 persons," said Mr. Hatcher.

The early delivery of defence equipment is taken as further proof that the Greater Victoria area is considered a No. 1 target area by Ottawa.

Mr. Hatcher told the board he expected civil defence lectures to start in about two weeks. The lectures would be handled by himself and Percy L. Sampson who will return soon from a special course at Ottawa.

SEEK HEADQUARTERS

The board instructed the co-ordinator to look for suitable premises to be used as a training, administrative and storehouse headquarters.

As a result of inclusion of Langford and Colwood in the Greater Victoria civil defence area, the board will invite those communities to appoint members to the control board. The move will be made on the understanding that the Provincial Government assumes its share of costs.

Pageant Crowds Park With Color, Glamour

Color and glamour crowded Royal Athletic Park last night as May 24 Queen Betty Dolman presided over the Grand Pageant, action and interest-packed highlight of Victoria's May 24 celebrations. Queen was surrounded by her court of princesses and attendants with R.C.M.P. constables, Canadian Scottish members forming guard of honor. At the microphone is Frank Hunter, chairman of the Greater Victoria May 24 Celebrations Association. The pageant was sponsored by Fraternal Order of Eagles, Victoria Aerie No. 12.

U.N. Leader Says Attack Not Opposed

Communists Severely Beaten As Offensive Becomes Rout

UNITED STATES EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, May 24 (Thursday) (INS).—Lt. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, commander of the United States Eighth Army, announced today that his United Nations troops are attacking everywhere along the Korean front "with no limitation being placed on our objective."

The commander of all U.N. ground forces in Korea declared that the Communists have been "severely defeated" and that their "initial success has been turned into complete failure."

Communist forces were in full retreat across most of the Korean front Thursday and pursuing United Nations troops slammed to within a mile and a half of the 38th parallel in the west.

THREAT KILLED

On the eastern front American troops wiped out the threat of a Red salient near Soksa and recaptured 13 wounded Americans left behind by the fleeing Chinese.

The U.N. forces gave evidence that they are stronger than ever by bounding back so quickly to take the attack even before the Communist offensive was fully spent. Prisoners taken by the United States Second Division expressed amazement that the Allies were able to counterattack so quickly.

Republic of Korea troops on the west flank of the United Nations line patrolled to within a mile and a half of Parallel 38 above the Imjin River northeast of Seoul.

The U.N. forces drove the Communists northward in full flight along the 85-mile stretch from the west coast to a point west of Pungam, 65 miles east of Seoul.

SOLE THREAT ENDED

American forces regained the town of Soksa from the Reds and stopped the only threat left after the defeat of the Reds "second round" offensive.

In most sectors across the peninsula the Reds were making orderly although hurried retreats. United Nations forces chalked up gains all across the central and west sectors Wednesday.

An Eighth Army communique Thursday said that there was no enemy resistance reported in the west and light contract on the central front. The communique added that observation gave "indications the enemy is continuing a hasty but orderly withdrawal."

Thirty-two miles northeast of Seoul and only 12 miles south of the 38th Parallel the Allied troops took the town of Kapyong without resistance, but dispersed an enemy platoon west of the town.

SHIFTS AIR ATTACK

As the Communists retreated the air force shifted its emphasis from anti-personnel attacks to interdiction bombings of bridges, tunnels, marshaling yards and rolling stock "to prevent Communist combat supplies from reaching enemy frontline troops."

Allied west front forces probed north of Munsan, 22 miles above Seoul; rolled into southern approaches of Korangpo, an Injin River town one mile south of the 38th Parallel, and speared north of recaptured Uijongbu, 11 miles north of Seoul.

A-Shells Favored In Korea

WASHINGTON, May 23 (INS)—Rep. Brooks (D) La., said today the United States has developed atomic artillery shells and urged their use in the Korean war.

The Congressman is a member of the House Armed Services Committee.

He declared in a statement that "the use of atomic shells in Korea will shorten the war," and added:

"It will save the lives of thousands of our soliders, sailors and airmen and will relieve the strain upon our people at home."

Brooks asserted that there is a "natural objection" to using atomic bombs, since they kill thousands of civilians as well as combatants.

NOT APPLICABLE

He asserted, however, that "this objection does not hold good for atomic artillery shells."

"Some of you may object to the use of atomic energy in any form because of radioactivity," he continued. "I have recently seen a statement printed to the effect that atomic shells have been constructed in such a way as to limit the quality of radiation. Certainly radiation from these shells will be localized and will have little effect on the countryside."

PROGRESS SHOWN

He said: "The recent test explosions have shown our progress and we should immediately take advantage of the possibility offered by the development of the new atomic artillery shell."

The Congressman said that the shells have "recently been developed."

While Brooks did not attend the recent tests, several members of the committee did so and presumably reported back to their colleagues on the results.

Rocket Hail Blasts Reds At Wonsan

TOKYO, May 24 (Thursday) (INS).—A blistering rocket attack Wednesday night intensified the naval siege of the North Korean enemy port city of Wonsan, now in its 97th day.

Vice-Admiral Charles Turner Joy in a naval bulletin Thursday morning said U.S. rocket launching ships moved in close to shore to launch their high-powered rockets at enemy installations.

[illegible]ORE SHELLED

Farther south, the 45,000-ton American battleship New Jersey, hit Sunday by one enemy shell, raked Communist communication lines and military installations.

Air spotters from Task Force 77 called the shots for the New Jersey, whose main battery plastered a highway bridge near Yangyang, slowing Red reinforcements to the eastern front. In addition, the aerial observers estimated the New Jersey's shells caused at least 200 enemy casualties.

Yangyang is just north of the 38th parallel on Korea's east coast.

Seven Killed As U.S. Plane Crashes, Burns

NEW CASTLE, Ind., May 23 (INS)—Seven persons were killed today and five seriously injured when a four-engined air force experimental plane crashed in flames on a farm six miles southeast of New Castle, Ind.

Indiana State Police said the plane exploded in flight after experiencing engine trouble. Fire enveloped the wreckage as it plummeted to the ground.

HOUR AFTER TAKE-OFF

The crash occurred about an hour after the plane took off from Wright-Patterson Air Field in Dayton, O.

The pilot who was injured said he tried to crash-land the huge craft—identified as a C-124, a version of the Douglas Globemaster—when it developed mechanical difficulties.

He explained:

"I went to the nearest open field, but was unable to clear a growth of trees."

SHEARED OFF TREES

The giant plane sheared off the top of several trees uprooting two of them, burst into flames and came to rest about 250 yards from a farm house. Fire burned all but the tail assembly.

Air force officials said the plane could carry at least a company of 200 equipped infantrymen. The craft was on flight test.

Gems Seized at Airport: Quebec Police Hold D.P.

MONTREAL, May 23 (CP)—The R.C.M.P. today arrested a Romanian displaced person at Montreal airport and seized 10,206 diamonds valued at more than $200,000.

The arrest was made shortly after the suspect, 21-year-old Jacob (Jack) Gross, stepped off a plane at the airport in suburban Dorval on the last leg of a trans-Atlantic flight.

Police would not divulge the man's last port of call.

Police said the arrest was made in co-operation with customs officials at the airport and resulted from a concerted round-the-clock check against diamond and gold-smuggling into Canada.

It was said to be the largest seizure ever made in Montreal.

Superintendent James R. Lemieux, head of the R.C.M.P. Criminal Investigation Branch here, said Gross apparently was a "tool" used to carry diamonds into Canada, possibly for distribution in the United States.

Gross, who came to Canada three years ago as a displaced person, will be arraigned Friday on a smuggling charge.

Pageant Provides Color Kaleidoscope

A brisk wind last night failed to flutter the enthusiasm of an estimated 3,000 spectators at the Grand Pageant in Royal Athletic Park—a highlight of Victoria's May 24 celebrations.

The pageant, in which uniforms of police, armed services units, drill teams, bands and dancers provided a kaleidoscope of color, was sponsored by the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Aerie No. 12.

QUEEN REIGNS

Reigning over the program on a mid-field throne was May 24 Queen Betty Dolman, surrounded by gaily-robed princesses, ladies-in-waiting and two tiny pageettes.

Guard of honor was provided by scarlet-coated R.C.M.P. constables and members of the Canadian Scottish (Princess Mary's) in full parade uniform.

Show was officially opened by Greater Victoria Celebrations Association chairman, Frank Hunter and Mayor Percy George, who paid tribute to persons and organizations working for the success of the May 24 celebration.

Colorful program included seven drill teams, including the smartly turned-out Seattle Police team, Highland Games and Victoria Girls' Pipe Band, Bellingham School Band, Victoria Boys', Lions Youth, R.C.N. and Eagles Bands.

Featured were Highland and classic dancers, drum majorettes from S. J. Willis Junior High School, Model Airplane League display, Y.M.C.A. and Pro-Rec tumbling and acrobatic teams.

Naval cadets and Boy Scouts attended; the Scouts lending a hand in keeping the field clean.

SNAPPY VISITORS

Among visitors were the snappily attired Portland Rosarians.

The gathering was a photographers' special. There was everything from tiny tot dancers in 18th Century costumes and baby drill team members to strapping soldiers in busbies. Clowns, drill teams, uniforms of blue and red, white and green, special costumes from China, beautiful girls in ballerina skirts made a picture parade.

It was pageantry at its most colorful—a dramatic part of the big-time show Victoria's May 24 celebrations have become.

Showers Expected to End Before Parade-Start Time

"Showers have been forecast for early this morning. But we hope they will be over by the time The Colonist is printed" said the weatherman last night.

Officials of the Elks parade committee stated last night that the parade will go on if it is not raining at 10.15 a.m.; if rain is falling at 10.15 the parade will be postponed until any time up to noon when the weather clears; if rain is still falling at noon the parade will be called off.

PARADE PARTICULARS

Start: At Royal Athletic Park at 10.15 a.m.

Route: Along Cook Street (passing park) to Pandora Avenue, turns left on Quadra Street to Yates Street then west to Douglas, right along Douglas (past City Hall) to Fisgard Street (past city police station) to Government Street. South on Government Street in grand finale to Legislative Buildings.

Suffered Heart Attack

U.S. Far East Air Chief Ill, Relieved of Command

WASHINGTON, May 23 (INS).—The air force late today relieved Lieut.-General George E. Stratemeyer of the Far Eastern air command because of ill health. Gen. Stratemeyer suffered a heart attack last week-end.

Lieut.-General O. P. Weyland, who was Stratemeyer's deputy until he returned recently to a post in the tactical air command at Langley, Va., was ordered to the Far East to succeed him as commander of all air forces in the theatre.

General Hoyt S. Vandenberg, air force chief of staff, said he "deeply regrets the illness which has made it impossible for Gen. Stratemeyer to continue in command of the Far East air forces."

Vandenberg added that "we are fortunate to have a man of the calibre of Gen. Weyland to succeed him."

Lieut.-General Earle E. Partridge, who has been commanding the Fifth Air Force under Stratemeyer in the Far East, was ordered home to become commander of the air research and development section of Wright-Patterson Base, Dayton, Ohio.

Partridge has been acting Far Eastern commander since Stratemeyer was stricken.

R.C.A.F. Craft Join Air Hunt For Civilian

EDMONTON, May 23 (CP).—A total of six R.C.A.F. planes have been directed to take part in the search for a civilian Bellanca aircraft, missing for six days in the Northwest Territories.

Air force officials disclosed in Edmonton tonight that two more Lancaster bombers have been ordered to join two Dakotas and a pair of Canso flying boats already in the hunt.

One of the Lancasters has been diverted to the search from a photographic mission in the far north.

The second Lancaster is from the 123rd Rescue Unit at Vancouver, but is at present in Prince Edward Island on a long-range navigation flight.

It will leave Summerside, P.E.I., air base at dawn tomorrow and is expected in the search area about eight hours later.

POOR WEATHER

Missing is John Bourassa, former flight lieutenant in the R.C.A.F., who took off Friday on a 200-mile flight from Bathurst Inlet to Salmita Mines in poor flying weather. Bathurst Inlet is 800 air miles northeast of Edmonton. It is wild muskeg territory.

Reports Indicate Area Around William Head May Be Taken Over for Naval, Air Base

William Head area may become a new naval and air base, it was learned unofficially yesterday.

Deep water harbor facilities and present buildings at the William Head quarantine station and Rocky Point are considered ideal for R.C.N. use.

Six miles of flat land have been checked and believed found suitable for air strips.

Reports of interest shown in Rocky Point by the R.C.A.F. follow increased use of Patricia Bay airport by commercial airlines and a delay in announcing actual lengthening of the east-west runway at the airport by the Department of Transport.

Air force officials in Vancouver have refused to confirm the reports.

Naval officials, however, confirmed that a Victoria real estate firm is arranging possible purchase of Rocky Point property for the National Defence Department. Quarantine station officials confirmed that residents of the area, which is about one mile west of the station by water, have been approached to sell their properties.

It was also learned that expansion of the navy and its stepped up program of making destroyers and other ships active again are expected to tax to the limit Esquimalt harbor facilities, necessitating use of William Head.

Part of the expansion is included in the $2,000,000 construction program for electrical and Diesel workshop and a new barracks block.

Some officials believed the increased department activity was closely tied with the announcement that William Head quarantine station will be closed and offices located in downtown Victoria.

For the past few years increasing land purchases have been made by the Dominion Government for the armed services in this area.

Road travel connects Esquimalt directly with William Head, while a rail line lies within a short distance of the station.

ALL ABOARD

By G. E. Mortimore

This is Victoria Day. It's our time to make merry, and toast the queen who gave this town her name.

Certainly we have earned the right to be proud of the town and the celebration, and there's no reason why we shouldn't wave our flags with zest as the parade passes.

But it may deflate our chests a little to ponder the fact that the queen gave her name to a lot of other places as well. At least 30 other towns and villages in the world are called Victoria.

[illegible] and Victoria City.

At least a dozen counties, states and other large areas are called Victoria, or include Victoria in their name.

Well, it may not be strictly true to say the late queen gave her name to all those places. Many of them stole the name from her, and their existence was probably never even suspected in Windsor Castle. And sometimes the origin was nothing to do with the queen at all. It sprang from the word "victory," rendered in some Latin language. As a matter of fact, the queen's name came from the same source.

Anyway, we are just one Victoria among many. We aren't even the largest. Victoria, capital of Hong Kong, has half a million people. Nor are we the smallest. Victoria, Mississippi, has 70 people.

There are 15 towns called Victoria in the United States: Victoria, Texas (capital of Victoria county); Victoria, Alabama; Victoria, Arkansas, Illinois, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Ohio, Virginia, Nebraska, New Mexico, Tennessee.

* * *

Only an optimist would address a letter from foreign parts to "Victoria" and expect it to reach Victoria, B.C. Such a letter might arrive, very dog-eared and accompanied by postal curses, at any one of the following towns:

Victoria, Prince Edward Island (a village at the mouth of the Crapaud River); Victoria, Algeria; Victoria, South Rhodesia (a village in Victoria township); Victoria, Northern Australia (also known as Port Essington).

(To confuse the issue further, there is a whole state in Australia called Victoria).

Victoria, Natal, South Africa (capital of Victoria district); Victoria, Cameroons, West Africa; Victoria, capital and chief settlement of the British island of Labuan, Malay Archipelago;

Victoria, Argentine Republic; Victoria, Brazil, Chile; Victoria, Venezuela (also known as La Victoria); Victoria, Luzon, Philippine Islands.

There is a Port Victoria on Isle Mahe, the chief town of the Seychelles Islands. There is a sizeable town called Ciudad Victoria, or Victoria City, in Mexico.

New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Ontario each have a Victoria County.

Nova Scotia and Ontario each have a Victoria Harbor. Ontario also has communities called Victoria Square, Victoria Vale and Victoria Mine. This last is not to be confused with Victoria Mines, Nova Scotia. Centres by the name of Victoria Corner and Victoria Village exist in New Brunswick and Newfoundland, respectively. Victoria Beach, Manitoba, is probably the only other Victoria in the West.

Victoria Land is part of the Antarctic Continent. Victoria West is a big chunk of land in South Africa. Victoriaville is in Quebec—but perhaps its extra syllable disqualifies it from the list.

There is a large and forbidding expanse of ice and snow in Canada's Northwest Territories called Victoria Island. Maybe that's where your letters are going.

* * *

If all the places called Victoria held a convention, they would need a large hall and several interpreters. Perhaps Mayor Percy George could present the delegates, on our behalf, with an illuminated address, or a hanging flower basket.

As Cecil Rhodes, or possibly Fitzpatrick, remarked, the sun never sets on Victoria.

Labor Leaders Explain Views On Immigrants

Two top Victoria labor spokesmen, Robert Smeal, president of Victoria Labor Council (C.C.L.) and Roy Whittle, business agent for Local 1-118, International Woodworkers of America (C.I.O.-C.C.L.), have expressed opposition to mass immigration.

Mr. Smeal said, "I believe in a selective need, but while there appears to be a seasonal shortage, any mass immigration could be a drug on the market in off-seasons."

FREE HAND

Mr. Whittle said that any immigrant worker should be given a free hand in selecting jobs.

"It's my opinion that Canada must have an immigration policy but immigrants should be brought in by the government and be allowed to work at anything," Whittle said.

"We have always been able to fill the demand for laborers and unskilled workers. Immigrant workers allowed in the country perhaps should be specialized."

NO DEMAND

He said he foresaw no large-scale demand for immigrant workers in the Victoria vicinity.

Meanwhile, the Vancouver Labor Council (C.C.L.) also opposed any stepped-up program of immigration for the province.

Trade union delegates claimed that agitation for a government drive to bring European workers was an attempt to "increase unemployment and force down wages."

Legion Raps Rejection of Offer

Special to The Colonist

PENTICTON. — The Federal Government drew sharp criticism from the Canadian Legion convention floor in Penticton yesterday over its refusal to accept a Dominion Command offer of the Legion's war services.

The question arose when letters from the Korean Force were read saying that comforts were not being supplied to wounded Canadians in Commonwealth hospitals in Korea.

Letters said the American Red Cross is looking after U.S. hospitals and is not concerned with Commonwealth institutions.

RENEWAL FAVORED

A resolution was passed asking the Dominion Command to renew its offer of war services and press for immediate action.

A former reeve of Saanich, Robert MacNicol, now living in Howe Sound, was elected B.C. representative to Dominion Command.

Legion members were warned that participation in Stockholm Peace Appeal and other activity labeled subversive was contrary to aims and objects of the Legion and would be dealt with by expulsion.

The Federal Government will be asked by the Legion to accord to Canadian Special Force soldiers the same benefits granted to World War veterans. The benefits, the Legion suggests, should be retroactive to the formation of the Special force.

SAME BENEFITS

A brief to trustees of the Naval Benevolent Fund requests that all widows, orphans, mothers and other dependents of deceased naval personnel, be given, when in need, the same financial assistance they would have received had the R.C.N. personnel survived.

A resolution was passed asking that immigration regulations be amended so that a basic knowledge of English or French be required before immigrants can enter the country.

A report that 24 classes in English had been established in Vancouver for newly-arrived teenaged Chinese prompted a discussion of the matter.

The report indicated that 200 more Chinese young people would be expected from Hong Kong soon.

In view of the high cost of educating the immigrants, it was decided, a basic knowledge of the two Canadian languages should be required or the Federal Government should assume the cost of teaching them.

Nanaimo has been chosen for the 1953 convention.

Korea Shows Soviets Dodge Direct Contact

INTERPRETING THE NEWS

By J. M. ROBERTS, Jr.
Associated Press News Analyst

General Omar Bradley testified before the Senate committee Monday that he believed the Communist outbreak in Korea last summer showed Russia was ready to run the risk of another world war.

The general presumably is taking the long view. Surely anyone who unleashes violence in the midst of a world situation such as has existed for the last five years is running that risk.

But General Bradley also testified that Russian military advisers in the North Korean army had been withdrawn after the fighting started.

"When we first started the action they had Russian advisers with the North Korean units, and they had them with division headquarters and down to regiments and in some cases battalions."

NO EVIDENCE

To a question whether there was any evidence that Russian officers or Russian troops remained after the war broke out, General Bradley replied: "No. So far as we know the Russian advisers all went home about October 1."

There, then, is the evidence that while Russia might have been ready to take a general chance on war, she was not ready to confront the United States and other United Nations troops directly.

It seems obvious that Russia really acted in Korea on a misunderstanding of U.S. policy. She was misled by American statements which did not include Korea in the Pacific line of defence.

AIMS BLOCKED

In France, in Germany, and particularly Berlin, in Italy, in Greece, in Turkey, in Indo-China, even; in every area where she has been presented with a firm Western policy, Russia has not moved. Communism advanced in China and in Eastern Europe, and in Korea, when the West presented no front.

One of the great hopes of preventing trouble in Iran now, which General Bradley admits is a possibility, is that Russia has no satellites behind which to hide, and that Korea has taught her the democracies will fight.

Stronger Armed Force, Sanctions To Be Asked Against Chinese Reds

NEW YORK, N.Y., May 23 (AP). —Stronger military measures against Communist China, plus diplomatic sanctions, were reported under active consideration today by the American delegation in the United Nations.

British sources made it clear London would oppose such steps vigorously if the Americans eventually decide to advance them as concrete proposals for the U.N. Sanctions Committee next week.

Britain feels that economic sanctions, approved last Friday by the U.N. General Assembly, are enough for the present stage.

POSSIBILITIES

The American delegation so far has not received the approval of the State Department for any ideas on the next steps. But the following possibilities are evident:

1. The General Assembly could be asked to issue a new appeal to all members of the U.N. to contribute more troops to war in Korea.

2. U.N. members could be asked also to chip in more ships and planes to help repel the Communists in Korea.

3. The 17 U.N. members which so far have recognized Red China could be asked to break off recognition, or at least cut down the diplomatic representation to a few minor officials.

WELCOME NEWS

The Americans and others welcomed the news that Colombia is sending a battalion of 1,180 troops. This is the first military contingent to go from any Latin-American country to the Korean theatre.

Comunist China reacted strongly today against the economic embargo. A Soviet news agency dispatch from Peiping called the economic embargo illegal, slanderous and a "violation of the U.N. charter." Peiping warned that U.N. members would be held responsible for the consequences.

U.N. sources still talked of peace moves today, but no actual developments were reported.

Amputee Hits Lack of Aid To Pensioners

OTTAWA, May 23 (CP) — A war amputee accused the Government today of making paupers of Canadian war pensioners.

He was Col. Sidney Lambert of Toronto, long-time president of the War Amputations of Canada and a Great War padre who lost his left leg above the knee overseas. The situation among pensioners today, he contended, "makes me a pacificist . . . it makes me see red."

His plea for higher pensions stole the show as the National Council of Veterans' Associations appeared before a Commons committee and backed last week's request by the Canadian Legion that the rates of both pensions and war veterans' allowances be increased sharply.

Col. Lambert took over after the official spokesman for the National Council, Major A. J. Wickens of Moose Jaw, Sask., said the committee should ask for power to make a thorough study of the situation confronting disabled veterans today.

Major Wickens said that when pension rates were boosted in 1948, the Government said the cost-of-living index would hold firm around 140. It had gone up more than 40 points since and the only class of the population that hadn't received financial assistance was disabled or needy veterans.

Dead Men Guard Secret Of Lost Command Post

EAST CENTRAL FRONT, KOREA, May 23 (AP) — 1st Marine Division troops on their way north today passed the grim remnants of a United States battalion command post in the "Valley of the Dead."

The valley was over-run by Chinese Communists in the dark May 17.

It was once a peaceful little valley with high, forested hills on each side.

But there was no way of knowing what it seemed like to the half-dozen wounded men who were rescued today after being cut off and helpless in a six-day nightmare.

SWARMED DOWN

As they were brought back through the command post by a stream where tents once had stood, they could see what had happened.

The Chinese had swarmed down from the hills. They had cut off whole elements of the battalion and swooped upon the command post from every direction.

They had shot holes through everything. Tents were ripped apart by bullets. Trucks were like sieves. Burned and wrecked vehicles were strewn along the little valley.

Two large tents remained standing, although they had been ripped almost to shreds by bullets. One tent had been the battalion aid station.

Inside, medicines and papers were strewn all over the ground. Outside, one body lay on a stretcher, as if the man was being treated when the enemy struck.

Outside the doorway of the other tent lay the body of an officer.

All around the tent were the personal effects of American soldiers. Every pack and duffle bag had been emptied.

There was no one there who could say exactly what had happened. How many Americans were killed? How many were wounded? How many were captured? How many escaped? No one knew.

Will Build Up 28 Squadrons To Defend Canada in War

OTTAWA, May 23 (CP). — Canada is creating an R.C.A.F. Air Defence Command charged with the primary responsibility for defence of the country in time of war, Defence Minister Claxton announced tonight.

It was the R.A.F.'s Fighter Command planes which saved Britain in 1940. Now Canada is establishing a parallel to take charge of the buildup of some 28 regular and reserve fighter squadrons.

It will be done, Mr. Claxton said, by elevating the present R.C.A.F. Air Defence Group headquarters at St. Hubert, Que., near Montreal, to Command status.

The first man to head it will be Air Vice-Marshal C. R. Dunlap, C.B.E., a native of Sydney Mines, N.S., who served in bombers overseas in the last war.

TOP MAN

Now top man in Northwest Air Command, with headquarters at Edmonton, Air Vice-Marshal Dunlap will assume his new job June 1, taking over from Group Capt. W. R. MacBrien, who has headed the air defence group.

Other changes announced by the minister:

1. The R.C.A.F.'s Tactical Group headquarters at Winnipeg is being moved to Edmonton and merged with Northwest Air Command with the headquarters to be known as Tactical Air Group H.Q. A Command ranks above a Group.

2. At Winnipeg, a Training Group headquarters will be formed to control and supervise the recently-announced plan to open seven air training schools on the prairies.

STREAMLINING

The changes mean that the R.C.A.F. is streamlining its setup in line with the vast new expansion program.

The new Air Defence or Fighter Command would be the key fighting arm the country would rely on in event of enemy attack. The Tactical Group would direct air support of army operations in defence of Canada. The Training Group will direct the training of 3,300 Canadian and allied airmen yearly.

Air Vice-Marshal Dunlap, who was commissioned in the R.C.A.F. in 1928, was posted overseas in 1942 to become commanding officer of a station in No. 6 Bomber Group. Before the Sicilian campaign of 1943, he went to North Africa where he commanded 331 Wing and directed establishment of several bases in Tunisia.

Returning to the United Kingdom, he took over 139 Medium Bomber Wing, which scored outstanding successes against German V-1 and V-2 sites and in support of allied ground forces.

Teacher Fighting Pupils

SOMEWHERE IN KOREA, May 23 (INS) — An American tank officer who holds a decoration from the Chinese Government is fighting in Korea today to "undo a year's work that backfired."

First Lieut. Raymond W. Steenagard of Company A, 79th Medium Tank Battalion, was awarded the Chinese Nationalist "Yuan Hi" (Order of the White Cloud) in 1945 for his work in training members of the Chinese Eighth Army.

He was sent to China after serving with Merrill's Marauders in Burma and was an instructor in a Chinese division for eight months.

Lieut. Steenagard said:

"I'm probably fighting against a great many of my own pupils who turned Communist after the (Japanese) war ended," he said.

The Los Angeles officer was recommended last week for a decoration by the Turkish Government for his outstanding tank support of Turkish soldiers fighting in Korea.

Husband "Seemed Wonderful"

Gem Burglar's Mate, 18 Tells Story to Police

WEST LOS ANGELES, Calif., May 23 (INS).—For a modern Cinderella the clock has struck 12 and she is in rags again.

"Cinderella" is raven-haired, dark-eyed Virginia Lee Fasenmyer, 18-year-old bride of a man who police said confessed the theft of $155,000 in jewels from the home of Mrs. Edna Letts McNaughton, department store heiress.

Virginia and her husband, Thomas R. Fasenmyer, Jr., 21, son of a wealthy Kansas City, Mo., automobile dealer, were arrested in San Diego where he was assertedly trying to dispose of the valuable gems.

In her cell at West Los Angeles police station, Virginia sobbed:

"Up until yesterday morning my 90 days with Tommy were all one glamourous whirl. Then the world turned topsy-turvy when the police arrested us."

She was married two months ago in Kansas City.

"POOR BUT HONEST"

"I'm from poor but honest parents and have worked hard at domestic jobs ever since I quit school four years ago," she said.

"When I met Tommy he was so wonderful. Wherever he went in Kansas City he seemed to have such fine friends. He spent money like water."

They came to Los Angeles and Fasenmyer assertedly stole the McNaughton gems in a "second story" burglary and went to San Diego afterward.

"I saw the jewelry on the dresser and asked Tommy where he got it but he wouldn't tell me. I tried to make him take it back," she said.

Of the loot $125,000 worth was found in the glove compartment of the Fasenmyer automobile. Fasenmyer told police he threw "one big stone" into the ocean because he was afraid to try to sell it, and planned to throw more of them into the sea.

Oddities

OTTAWA, May 23 (CP).—In high dudgeon, the McKellar Golf Club set to work today to restore a 500-foot section of three-inch pipe used to irrigate the course.

When groundsmen earlier this week turned on the tap, nothing happened. Somebody, they later told the civic complaint bureau, had walked off with part of the pipe.

Bureau officials checked, blushed, and reported their own water work department took the pipe. Digging a drainage ditch, workers found the pipe in the way and carted it off.

The mechanics found the live woodchuck wedged between a side panel and the upholstery.

Turner said it got into the trunk when the car was parked in the country.

ATTOON, Ill., May 23 (AP).—An Illinois Central Railroad caboose has been retired until a family of robins grows up.

Last week switchmen discovered the robin's nest just above the rear left trucks of a caboose.

The crew carried them to another caboose, and the mother robin followed.

Now the caboose has been officially retired until the birds fly away.

Victoria Puts Its Best Foot Forward

PARADE, regatta, fireworks, all of the essentials of Victoria's cherished and time-honored holiday seem to be on hand for the celebration of the peak of the May 24 program, spread over several days. It was Oliver Wendell Holmes who said that the only essentials of a feast are "fun and feed." Carnivals are of the same order, and it is still the fun that is carried to the celebration that makes the party. If thorough preparations count for anything, and they should, neither citizen nor guest within our gates today should go short of entertainment and a right good time. Our hope is for a safe, sane and happy holiday for each and every family, with the children given the curbside where they can see the passing parade.

In a world grown far too serious for its own good, the ability to relax and enjoy a good time is of fresh importance. When this happens on a community-wide scale, as is the case on May 24, the event becomes memorable. Associated as the holiday is with Empire Day, the occasion is one that makes a lasting impression on children. May that be a gay and spirited one, something to remember at times when there are no marching bands and waving flags. "Victoria Day," as old-timers still call it, has long been a special event in this community. The return of the Indians to the Gorge in their racing canoes and many of the ingredients of the city's pioneer celebrations, together with many new ones, should make May 24 this year a forward step on even the greatly improved programs of recent times. Congratulations are due to those who worked long and hard to make the current festival perhaps the most ambitious this community has prepared yet.

Why Shouldn't There Be a Referendum?

IN turning down a referendum on the subject of reducing the number of aldermen the City Council is acting like an oligarchy afraid of its own skin. Obviously it believes that ratepayers would support such a recommendation, but seems determined they won't be given the chance to express that opinion. The democratic tradition is seemingly at a low ebb at the City Hall.

Alderman Skillings was correct when he credited citizens with the right and the ability to pass judgment on the issue. Most of his colleagues disagreed with him, but they are sadly mistaken if they think the public doesn't know the work of its City Council. There is no other governing body about whose affairs they know so much, as aldermen are always apt to find out at election times.

Aldermanic pleas about how busy they are may be taken with at least one grain of salt. The city manager system was introduced to relieve them of needless preoccupation with detail, and certainly this official seems to be fully occupied these days. If aldermen are still swamped with duties perhaps they are overburdening themselves with matters that could quite well be left to permanent civic staffs.

The city manager should not be the person to decide about the composition of the City Council, and the reference made to him on this question puts him in an awkward position. His expected report provides a convenient excuse for the council to avoid coming to grips with the problem, however, albeit any suggestion he may make on the size of the aldermanic board should be subject to the wishes of the electorate. They are the governed, and it is their cardinal right to say how many shall be their governors.

Of what, in any case, are aldermen afraid? That some of them might lose their seats?

Poker With the Cards Face Up

OUT of the spate of words continuing to pour from the United States Senate's pursuance of the Truman-MacArthur dispute, there came one pungent warning for Congress to reflect upon. This was General Bradley's reference to the serious consequences which could attend unguarded disclosure of military strategy and intentions, and of the state of preparedness of the Western nations.

"I think," General Bradley said, "it is very harmful to our security and to our country, and to our future security, to have to pass on to Russia all of our intentions, all of our thoughts, all of our capabilities . . . I am sorry we have to do this, but since it is demanded by the people and is inherent in our (the United States) form of government, here it is . . ."

In America's absorption with the affairs of one man, and in the clash of partisan politics precipitated by MacArthur's dismissal, all caution seems to have been thrown away. Information which should be shared only by a small group of the nation's trusted leaders is blabbed to the world just as if potential enemies were not listening. Russia, instead of being kept guessing, is put in possession of information of incalculable value in its assessment of the West's capabilities to resist aggression; which must be what General Bradley had in mind when he warned that the inquiry might incite Russia to war.

The Great Debate, as it is called, goes far beyond the domestic politics of America. To expose thus the military plans, the strengths and weaknesses of America is to endanger not merely the security of the United States but that of all its allies; and it is this aspect of the investigation which makes what is said there the business of the Western nations as a whole. This urge to tell all seems to be a disease of the American people, and until they come to appreciate the value of silence and their responsibilities to partner nations, confidence in the qualifications of the United States to lead the Western world cannot be complete.

POINT ELLICE DISASTER

Sir,—On May 26, 1896, at 1.50 o'clock, the little city of Victoria, her gay celebrations abruptly ended, was hushed and mourned her dead. Point Ellice Bridge had collapsed.

Jammed tight in that car, trapped without a chance of escape, limp bodies in holiday white, dripping clothes, golden, auburn or black hair hanging, were tenderly placed on Captain Grant's lawn.

Earthly remains, piled one on top of another in wagons, hearses and various conveyances, were taken to morgues and the city market. Finding their dead, relatives or friends cried, "This need not have been." When identified, husbands and wives, mothers and their children, sisters, were placed side by side and the white faces covered. Fifty-five in all! No, this need not have been.

To watch, with other onlookers, to see if your own were among the dead, and hear the sobbing as loved ones were recognized, is something not to be forgotten.

Could stories and testimonies, with coroner's inquiry, printed in the papers at that time be read by today's citizens, present apathy would turn to action.

Numerous twin tombstones and a cemetery with 55 new graves is not a pretty picture nor a pride to beautiful Victoria, capital of a grand province of a marvelous Dominion. Let it not be repeated.

My father and I watched it all, expecting my two sisters to be taken out of the water, not knowing whether they were in the first or second car. It wasn't very pleasant!

A. M. BROWN.

921 Trutch Street, Victoria, B.C.

GOOD SPEECH

Sir,—As I do not know your correspondent, Mr. E. Weber, may I thank him through your columns, for his very scholarly letter in appreciation of my speech choir, heard in the recent Victoria Musical Festival. Mr. Weber has done the oldest of arts a service in drawing attention to the value of keeping literature alive by use of the speaking voice. Untold millions serve the divine art of music, but the equally divine art of speech is too often regarded as a natural gift that needs no care, no developing. As for the instrument used, the voice, many speakers have no idea how to use it. At the present day, it seems to me, that speech and speaking voices are in the gravest danger of deterioration, owing to the ugly voices and bad speech, too often heard in poor movies and inferior radio programs. The "funnies" also, too often set a bad example to young people of illiterate English. Therefore a letter like Mr. Weber's does good because it attracts the attention of many who, like myself, desire for Canada the standard of speech and voice use that is set by Canadians of good education and cultivated taste. Choral speaking not only helps people to "experience" poetry, as Mr. Weber suggests, but also provides a firm foundation of correct voice use and good speech upon which all types of speakers can build effectively. Many speakers attempt to "build bricks without straw"; in other words they try to express vision or talent without first sharpening their tools.

MARION J. ORD,

1005 Cook Street, Victoria, B.C.

INDIRECT TAXATION

Sir,—Please permit us to offer our congratulations on the part your paper played in informing Canadians fully of the dangers that existed in the hasty and ill-advised turnover tax amendment to the British North America Act.

The turnover tax proposal is at least shelved and may never be revived. Every good citizen will appreciate the efforts of a large section of the press, in which your paper participated, in subjecting the matter to public scrutiny. Certainly the already overburdened taxpayer will be grateful that, through the force of aroused public opinion, he has been spared the added burden of an unfair and unwise hidden retail sales tax.

C. J. HARRIS,
Secretary,
Canadian Unity Council.

Room 4, 207 College Street, Toronto (5), Ont.

WRONGFUL IMPRISONMENT

Sir,—For F. J. Lee's information, a full pardon will make the victim feel good; so good, in fact, that she will forget all about full compensation.

(MRS.) D. GRACE.

2078 Goldsmith Street, Victoria, B.C.

Frolic

The children were shouting together
And racing along the sands,
A glimmer of dancing shadows,
A dovelike flutter of hands.

The stars were shouting in heaven,
The sun was chasing the moon:
The game was the same as the children's,
They danced to the self-same tune.

The whole of the world was merry,
One joy from the vale to the height,
Where the blue woods of twilight encircled
The lovely lawns of light.

—George William Russell.

"IT'S MY OPINION YOU WARMONGERS DON'T WANT TO TALK PEACE"

Thinking Aloud

". . . of shoes—and ships—and sealing wax—of cabbages and kings."

By TOM TAYLOR

TODAY is the day. It is actually the third day of the May 24 days, if one may so put it, but what has gone before, although brilliant, has been anticipatory to the events of today.

This is the grand climax, Victoria Day, and there is enough pageantry about the occasion to please the old Queen herself should she step down from her pedestal on Belleville and join the throngs gathered to do her honor.

Altogether the program this year is a fine tribute to the hard work of the celebrations committee, and they deserve our collective thanks.

* * *

I hope that this morning Victorians will be more vocal than they usually are when public parades are staged. All of us, I'm afraid, are too shy for our own good. A stranger could easily assume we take our pleasures sadly, so rigid are our lips when bands, drill teams, marching men and women, pass in review before our eyes.

Let's overcome our reticence for once and applaud the performers of today with what the M.C. calls a big hand. And add a cheer to it. It will buck up the paraders no end, and have a ditto effect on ourselves. Remember, too, that it's the May Queen's parade, so give Queen Betty and her attendants a special huzza. Incidentally I must take heed of this suggestion myself.

* * *

In case you are reading this before setting out to pick a good spot on the curb, and lest you haven't noted the route to be followed, here it is:

The parade will start from Pembroke and Cook at 10.15 a.m., go south on Cook to Pandora, west on Pandora to Quadra, south on Quadra to Yates, west on Yates to Douglas, north on Douglas to Fisgard, west on Fisgard to Government, and south on Government to Superior Street, where it finishes.

* * *

We all take it for granted the weather will be fine today—that goes without saying. It would be ironic were it otherwise after the salubrious days that have been our portion this spring. Incidentally, many people have been looking this gift in the mouth, fearful that so much sunshine heralds a wet summer. Why such reasoning no one knows, but there it is. The good things in life always seem too good to be true, and so we don't appreciate them until they are over.

But it will be all right today, never fear. The sun will shine brightly on our young May Queen and her court—I hope.

* * *

A cursory glance at the official program should suffice to indicate that Victoria is not the rustic retreat some people affect to think it is. The town is, in truth, very much up and doing. No other city in all of Canada, I feel sure, celebrates May 24 in such gay and vivid fashion. There is enough variety among the scheduled events to satisfy the most avid seeker of entertainment.

Or there should be. Some folks are hard to please, of course, but if they don't feel joyful today—well, forget about them for they are beyond redemption.

* * *

So put on your best bib and tucker—or your oldest slack suit—and let yourself go. It will warm the cockles of your heart.

Gerald Waring

Reporting From Ottawa

TIME seemed to move backwards 10 years in as many minutes as I stood watching the Wings Parade at the R.C.A.F. station at Centralia, Ont.

It was graduation day for the first N.A.T.O. pilots to train in Canada. Sixty of them, from Belgium, France, Italy, The Netherland and Norway, were drawn up before a flag-decked dais on the tarmac. With them were 24 Canadian youngsters, flight cadets who also had completed their training.

Brilliant sunlight poured down from a cloudless blue sky, touching on airmen's polished buttons, twinkling on officers' drawn swords, blazing on silver trumpets and brass horns of the bands.

It gave me that "This is where I came in" feeling, a curious sensation mixed with nostalgia for what had been and pride in what was. For I had seen it all before: another summer's day in another war at another station with another group of bright, alert youngsters in air force blue, proudly confident in their newly-acquired ability to soar through the wild blue yonder.

That day had passed, and others, many others, had succeeded it, until by the war's end 131,000 pilots, navigators, wireless operators, air gunners and bombardiers from four Commonwealth nations had received their wings at Canadian air schools.

* * *

The Commonwealth Air Training Plan is but a memory now, along with the terrible war which gave it birth. But under the threat of a new war, it has been re-born as the N.A.T.O. Training Plan, to provide air training facilities for the 12 partners in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. Once again Canada's superlative facilities for training military fliers are being put to use; once again the drone of Wasp engines in Harvard trainers is becoming a sound so familiar as scarcely to provoke a turn of a head.

This year 3,300 airmen will train at a half-dozen Canadian air schools. Fourteen hundred of them will be fliers from our N.A.T.O. partners—the five listed above, plus Britain and probably Portgual and Denmark as well. Young Britons, whom Canadian airdromes saw in their thousands in the Second World War, are just entering the training stream.

Defence Minister Claxton conceived the idea of a N.A.T.O. air training program a year ago, and five N.A.T.O. nations accepted with alacrity. The first eight months courses got under way last fall, pilots training at Centralia, navigators at Summerside, P.E.I.

* * *

The plan has proven outstandingly successful. At the Wings Parade at Centralia, the ambassadors of the nations concerned praised it unreservedly:

Vicomte du Parc, Belgian Ambassador: ". . . very efficient training which is building the tradition of working together between Belgian and Canadian forces."

French Ambassador Hubert Guerin: ". . . shows perfect concord among N.A.T.O. members, and also the greater and greater part Canada is playing in world affairs and in defence of the free world."

Italian Ambassador Mario de Stefano: "We are very grateful to Canada."

Netherlands Ambassador A. H. J. Lovink: "The Netherlands is grateful."

Lieutenant H. Antonsen, Norwegian representative: "Please accept Norway's thanks for this opportunity to train Norwegians in Canada."

As Defence Minister Claxton told the graduates, the N.A.T.O. Air Training Plan shows the world how "the people of the free countries can work together in friendship and trust towards the common aim of each and every one of us."

Unnecessary Fuss

(From The Regina Leader-Post)

MUCH of the hullabalioo about External Affairs Minister Pearson's foreign policy speech in Toronto seems unwarranted and unnecessary.

From the reaction the speech has apparently aroused in some quarters, one would think that Mr. Pearson had advocated that Canada should cut all ties with the United Staes and steer a course of splendid isolationism or join up with Nehru's third force and leave the U.S.A. to its own devices.

All that Mr. Pearson did, of course, was to mildly criticize the U.S.A. for its apparent belief that its feeling of "my country right or wrong, but right or wrong, my country" should extend even beyond the boundaries of the United States to such good neighbors as Canada.

All that Mr. Pearson's speech said was that Canada, as a nation of 14,000,000 people, has a right to its own views. If these views do not happen to coincide 100 per cent with those held in Washington, that does not mean that Canada feels any less friendly towards her great neighbor to the south.

The key words in Mr. Pearson's address were:

"That relationship (beween Canada and the U.S.A.) as I see it, means marching with the United States in the pursuit of the objectives which we share. It does not mean being pushed along, or loitering behind."

No one in his right senses believes today that Canada and the United States are any less friendly than they have ever been. But even the best of friends disagree on occasion. The real test of true friendship is that such disagreements can be aired and that each party can appreciate the other's point of view without taking offence. It will take more than honest criticism to upset the deep and basic feeling of friendship and co-operation that now exists between Canada and the U.S.A.

The Packsack

OF GREGORY CLARK

IN most city and town families, there is generally some memory of the farm. Grandfather or grandmother was likely born on the farm. Few city families are genuinely urban as far back as the third or fourth generation.

The recollections of farm life handed down within such families are usually 50 to 75 years old, and fantastic from much retailing. Even though city families drive through the country scores of times a year, their impression of life on the farm is founded upon the stories of old Grandpa Campbell or Aunt Nellie Bright that have come down through the generations, rather than upon the facts that can be seen merely by looking out a car's windows.

Farming is just as advanced in its techniques as any city trade or calling. In some respects, it is more advanced. For instance, in some cities the milkman still makes his early morning rounds with his horse and wagon and his rack of bottles. But on the farm, where the milk originates, production is by machinery of the most modern sort; separation, refrigeration and transportation are all on a high level of mechanized efficiency. The hicks are in the cities, going their old-fashioned way.

Farming has been revolutionized not merely by the distribution of electric power and the constant improvement of machinery and farm tools, but by the wide dissemination and general acceptance of technical agricultural education; daily crop and market reports are part of the household routine on farms. When a farmer plants a ten-acre field of tomatoes, he has them sold before he plants them. He buys and sells livestock as lively as any player of the stock market buys shares. What our country grandpas remember of farming our city grandpas can recollect of horse cars and paddle-wheel steamboats.

Cartophily

AT one time most small boys collected cigarette cards, greedily exchanging greasy, dog-eared scraps of colored pasteboard. Now that cards are no longer issued with every packet of cigarettes they have attained a certain rarity value and the pastime has been raised to the status of a grown-up pursuit and now dignified by the name of cartophily. There is a Cartophilists' Society, and three magazines are devoted to the hobby.

A. J. Cruse, who has written several books on the subject, spoke about it recently on the B.B.C., and reminded his listeners that when cigarette cards first appeared 70 years ago they were greeted by a storm of protest. This was because they featured actresses in various stages of undress. Readers wrote letters to The Times about them and grew indignant at such effrontery. In spite of this, cigarette cards had caught on and came to stay, but the next series was much more educational and decorous and was called the "March of Mind."

The Boer War caused military cards to be produced and when the First World War began one firm of tobacco manufacturers patriotically took out the German and Austrian musicians from their series of musical celebrities and replaced them with musicians who favored the Allied cause.

In the Second World War cigarette cards actually menaced naval security, for extensive press advertising in 1939 offered two shillings each for a modern series of cards on British Naval Craft. A public spirited gentleman called Colonel Bagnall, D.S.O., thought this was suspicious and told Scotland Yard, who made routine enquiries and were told that the cards were required for the export trade. Later on the British Intelligence Service discovered that the series formed part of the Nazi submarine equipment. The London advertiser had sent the cards to the German Admiralty by a roundabout route, for their accuracy and attention to detail made them an ideal medium for identifying British warships.

So great is the modern interest in cartophily that Mr. Cruse has sponsored a cigarette and trade card exhibition which has been shown in several Midland towns. It contains a cavalcade of cigarette cards from 1888 to 1940, when they were discontinued owing to the war. It is possible that they may return in due course and if and when they do it will add even greater interest to what is fast becoming a widespread hobby.

—B.B.C. London Letter.

Urges Area Increase Fire Trucks

Greater Victoria civil defence area has a deficiency of fire fighting equipment, Leonard G. Hatcher, civil defence co-ordinator, told the control board yesterday.

"To give adequate protection, four more pumpers (fire trucks) are needed," said the co-ordinator.

This equipment, he said, was needed anyway, regardless of civil defence needs.

Strictly for civil defence, the co-ordinator added, 24 truck and trailer units are required to carry men and equipment to fires.

Esquimalt should have two-way radio equipment, and Oak Bay should have more than it does now, Mr. Hatcher continued.

He said an examination has been made of all available water supply in the area, and discussions have been held on decentralization of fire fighting apparatus in case of an emergency.

A total of 336 auxiliary firemen will be needed. Fire chiefs in the area have agreed to undertake training of the auxiliaries.

Offers Plan To Select Immigrants

Nanaimo resident H. Elgie has offered a plan for European service in a Canadian Army for prospective labor immigrants.

In a letter to The Daily Colonist yesterday, Mr. Elgie suggested enlistment of persons wishing to emigrate from Europe to Canada with Canadian army pay and training for a two-or-three-year period. At the same time education could be given them on the Canadian way of life, he stated.

Mr. Elgie reasoned that accepting immigrants from European countries would weaken defences there, and probably show that the men willing to remain and serve were the persons desired in Canada.

"Past judgment of Canadian officials in their selection of immigrants has led to a few of our atomic secrets landing in other countries," he stated.

It was suggested that after the required period of enlistment with good service persons be given full Canadian citizenship and allowed to enter Canada.

Uncle Wiggily Story

By RITA DEL MAR

ON THEIR TRAIL

If you will please wait a short time, I will tell you how Foxie, Wolfie and Bobbie the bob cat got on the trail of the bad daddy fox, his wife and Ki Yi the little fox. But first I want to finish about Bunty's adventure.

You remember, I hope, that on her way to Hollow Tree School in the squad car of Chief the police dog, Bunty saw some May flowers growing near a big stump. Chief stopped the car. Bunty hopped out and picked two paws full of red, blue, pink, purple and yellow blossoms.

Then the orphan rabbit came hopping back to Chief's car very fast and told him, please, to drive to Hollow Tree School as fast as he could. Uncle Wiggily thought perhaps that Bunty had been stung by a bee. But the orphan rabbit said:

"No, it wasn't a bee. It was an adventure. I'll tell you about it when we get to school."

A short time after that, Chief's car was at the school. The Lady Mouse Teacher excused Bunty for being late on account of what had happened with Ki Yi and the daddy fox.

"Oh, what lovely May flowers, Bunty!" said Miss Mouse. "I must put them in water so they will keep fresh."

"And while Miss Mouse is getting water for the flowers, Bunty," said Uncle Wiggily, "suppose you tell Chief and me about your adventure near the big stump where you picked the blossoms. What sort of an adventure was it, Bunty?"

"It—it was a very surprising adventure, Uncle Wiggily," replied the orphan rabbit.

"Most adventures are surprising, Bunty," spoke the jolly old rabbit gentleman as he twinkled his pink nose. "But what was so surprising about your adventure?"

"Whom do you think I saw, Uncle Wiggily, as I looked around the edge of the big stump when I was picking flowers. I'll give you three guesses."

"You saw Jimmie Wibblewobble the duck, Bunty."

"No, Uncle Wiggily."

"You saw Jackie and Peetie Bow Wow."

"No, Uncle Wiggily. I couldn't see the duck boy nor the puppy dog boys because they were here in Hollow Tree School. Try again."

"Did you see Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, Bunty?"

"No, Uncle Wiggily. Nurse Jane is in your hollow stump bungalow getting lunch ready, I think. Do you give up?"

"Yes, as I have had three guesses and didn't get one right, I give up," said Mr. Longears. "Who was behind the stump?"

"Ki Yi, the little fox who nearly led me into the den of his daddy the bad fox. I saw Ki Yi near the stump."

"No! No!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggily in surprise.

"Yes! Yes!" said Bunty positive like and sure.

"What was Ki Yi doing, Bunty?"

"He was asleep so he didn't see me. And near him also asleep, were two other strange foxes—Ki Yi's daddy and mother, I guess. Wasn't that a surprising adventure?"

"It was, indeed, Bunty. No wonder you wanted to get away in a hurry. I must tell Chief about this. I'll hop out and talk to him."

The police dog was in his squad car outside Hollow Tree School. And when Chief heard about the strange bad foxes near the flower stump, the police dog barked:

"I must get on their trail at once. Those bad foxes must be driven out of our woods. Here come Foxie, Wolfie and Bobbie, your friends, Uncle Wiggily. We'll team up with them and we will get on the fox trail."

What happened next? I can tell you tomorrow, if the butter knife doesn't spread applesauce on a slice of bread and call it a coconut custard pie.

Umpire's Decision Not Alibi Enough As A's Lose Again

HOW THEY STAND

| | W. | L. | Pct. | G.B. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Vancouver | 24 | 8 | .750 | |
| Spokane | 22 | 11 | .667 | 2½ |

| Tacoma | 14 | 17 | .452 | 9½ |
| Yakima | 12 | 18 | .400 | 11 |
| VICTORIA | 12 | 19 | .387 | 11½ |

Victoria Athletics are back where they were on May 7—seven games below .500—and the W.I.L. season is 16 games older. They slipped for the seventh successive time at Royal Athletic Park yesterday afternoon and for the second time in a row, lost a game that appeared won in the ninth inning.

Tacoma Tigers did it again before a small afternoon crowd, pushing over two runs with two out to edge out a 3-2 triumph and take a 2-0 lead in the four-game series.

As has been the case in each of the losing streaks, the A's got only the bad breaks but at the same time, the club continued to show an inability to keep pressure on and helped toss away the decision with an error and a mistake in judgment.

NOT IMPRESSIVE

It is no alibi to state that yesterday's loss was caused by plate-umpire Ed Maslowski, who, along with partner Dick Valencourt, has not been the least impressive in the last six Victoria games.

John Marshall was the unfortunate victim of Maslowski's glaring call. The big right-hander, showing much of his old-time form, entered the ninth inning on the long end of a 2-1 count and in no apparent danger of losing control of the situation. Two were out and there was a runner on third when Johnny Kovenz stepped to the plate. With the count one ball and two strikes, Marshall slipped a fast ball over the heart of the plate. It surprised Kovenz and, apparently, Maslowski, who called it a ball. Given another chance, Kovenz singled in the tying run. He stole second, went to third as Lilio Marcucci threw high, and plated the winner on a single by Mike Catron.

CLAIM JUSTIFIED

After retiring the side, Marshall marched to home plate and let loose with a well-delivered oration at Maslowski. His bristling talk, free from any traces of profanity, resulted in ejection but there were none who felt that Marshall's claim that "you just lost me a ball game" was not right.

It was the second ejection of the game and the fourth of the series for the new umpiring duo. Jim Brillheart, for the second time in two games, had an early shower by request. Maslowski tossed him in the fourth inning after a called strike on Catcher Bill Sheets although the Tacoma manager never left the coaching lines at third base until he was informed he was no longer in the game.

ADDED BITTERNESS

After Marshall's talk, the A's made the defeat even more bitter by passing up a chance to score the tying run. Jim Propst batted for Marshall and eventually walked. He went to second on a wild pitch after Bill Dunn twice bunted foul. Dunn grounded out but Don Pries, batting second in a revised batting order, lined a single to right. Although Propst got a bad start, he could easily have scored. He was held up at third base and Gene Thompson bounced back to the mound for a game-ending double play, the third for the winners.

The only heartening item from the Victoria view was Marshall's pitching. The veteran spaced five hits well in the first eight innings and seemed to have his old ability to pitch out of jams. Three of his strikeouts came in the clutch and he was saved once when Pries made a brilliant diving catch on Butch Moran's low liner with runners on third and second and two out in the fourth.

Dick Bartle made his first home appearance for the losers, playing seven innings at third base and handling himself well. He took over from Marcucci, who went behind the plate again when Milt Martin injured his hand sliding at third base in the second inning.

On Mound Today

DICK BARRETT

Manager of Victoria Athletics, Barrett wil take mound himself against Tacoma this afternoon in attempt to halt seven-game losing streak of A's. He won first start with help of Bill Osborn but was on losing end in second appearance. Game time is 2.30. Southpaw Jim Propst will hurl second half of day-night holiday twin bill which will start at 8.

Epsom Derby Betting Wild; Arcot Favored

LONDON, May 23 (Reuters)—The Epsom Derby, to be run over 1½ miles at Epsom Downs next Wednesday, will be the richest and perhaps the screwiest running of the classic in its history.

Forty-four horses were named today as final acceptors. Some may drop out, but it seems certain the field will exceed the previous record of 33 in 1862.

Prize money will total £22,925 of which the winner takes £19,486.

The Derby acceptors are:

Anamnestes, Arcot, Arctic Prince, Ardent Hope, Barna Remedy, Bokara, Orumfield, Clare Hill, Claudius, Crocodile, Expeditious, Fast Anchor, Faux Pas, Fraise du Bois, Ki Ming, King Cardinal, Le Tyrol, Le Vent, Malktadeh, Malka's Boy, Medway, Mystery the Ninth, Neron, North Carolina, Nourreddin, Nyangal, Paradise Street, Part du Lyon, Prince Douilly, Quick Return, Raincheck, Sashcord, Selector the Second, Signal Box, Stokes, Straight Quill, Sun Compass, Sybil's Nephew, Titian, Turco the Second, Turks Reliance, Waterinbury, Woodcote Inn, Zucchero.

Young Cricketers In Match Today

Victoria and Vancouver will play an exhibition junior boys' cricket match at the University School today at 11 a.m. Players on both teams are under 18 years of age.

Victoria's team, captained by Challoner of University School, will include Read, Sunde, Rooper and Higgs of University School; McInnes, Good-nough and Bellm of Shawnigan Lake; Carlyle of Qualicum College, Sharp of Glenlyon, and Tanner of St. Michael's.

Leader Surprised by Portland Move, Predicts Quick Re-Entry in P.C.H.L.

Surprised at the announcement of the withdrawal of the Portland club yesterday, but apparently unperturbed, Al Leader, president of the Pacific Coast Hockey League, predicted last night that the Oregon metropolis would be back in before the next hockey season starts.

"I look for Portland to be back in," Leader stated in a telephone conversation with the Colonist. "I expect that local interests will purchase the franchise and remain in the league."

The Portland franchise is owned by the Portland Ice Arena, property of Eddie and Roy Shipstad and Oscar Johnson, also owners of the world-famed "Ice Follies."

Just what would happen if Portland failed to re-enter the P.C.H.L. remained a matter of conjecture. Los Angeles is the only other city likely to be considered. It is known that club owners are not at all inclined to think that Spokane would fill the bill. Nanaimo would hardly be able to afford the luxury of P.C.H.L. hockey and a second team in Vancouver playing out of Kerrisdale Arena would infringe on the territorial rights of owner Coley Hall.

However, it is not likely that Los Angeles will enter a club although owner Charlie Cord is anxious to get back into the league. Cost of travel would be prohibitive. Cord has until June 1 to accept or reject what league officials admit is a "tough proposition."

Under the terms, each of the northern clubs would play three games in Los Angeles with the home club footing the traveling expenses. Los Angeles would make three swings around the circuit taking care of its own expenses. With six clubs in the north, it would mean 18 home games for the Monarchs, not nearly enough to even give a chance for financial success. With five clubs, it would be much worse.

Cord and his associates will decide this week-end whether or not they feel they can meet the terms.

"I don't think Los Angeles will go," Leader said after a telephone conversation with Cord yesterday.

Whether or not there will be any change in the 70-game schedule if the P.C.H.L. is forced to start next season with five teams will have to be decided at a meeting of league directors. It is almost certain there will be no reduction in the number of games, but there is a possibility that two games may be added.

UNBALANCED SCHEDULE

A balanced five-team schedule would call for 72 games, nine at home and nine away with each of the other four clubs. The probability is that the league will play 70 games and revert back to the unbalanced schedule of two seasons ago.

At the same time, Leader expressed his opinion that reports that Frank Dotten is ready to sell his Seattle franchise are not likely to prove correct.

"I talked with Dotten Monday," Leader stated. "He had no notion of selling then."

Victoria High Dominates Inter-School Track Meet

Victoria High School students walked off with almost all honors in the annual inter-high school track and field meet held at the new Gyro cinder track at Victoria High during the past three days.

Victoria High again won the inter-school competition and the Roy Jones Memorial Cup. The senior school has won the championship every year since the inter-high meet was inaugurated four years ago.

Victoria High athletes amassed a total of 172½ points and Oak Bay High School was second with 96½. Mount View had 43, Esquimalt 28½, and Mount Douglas 25¼.

All the individual aggregate prizes were won by Victoria High pupils.

FIRST IN FOUR

Ted Whan placed first in four events during the meet to take the senior boys' aggregate cup. Johnny Johnson of Oak Bay, was runner-up.

John Whan, Ted's brother, captured three firsts to win the junior aggregate cup. Schoolmate Bob Zarry was runner-up.

Chris Boyd amassed a total of 12½ points for Victoria High to win the senior girls' cup. Pat Wright won the junior girls' cup.

A stiff breeze which blew throughout yesterday's track events hampered the runners in cracking existing records.

ONLY RECORD

Victoria High's Don Burgess set the only record by clipping 3.5 seconds off Phil Matson's record for the open mile. Burgess completed the course in 4:39.8. Matson set the previous mark in 1948.

Two other standards were tied yesterday. Ted Whan ran the senior boys 440-yard event in 54.4 seconds to tie Don Pimlott's mark, set last year. Victoria High School's junior boys' medley relay team also tied the existing mark of 1:48.9, set last year by the same school.

Fuelmen Win

Island Fuel Supply defeated V.B.R.A. 9-1 in a Senior "C" Men's Softball League game at Beacon Hill Park last night. Charlie Adams was the winning pitcher. He allowed the Fuelmen only four scattered hits.

Victoria United Soccer Boosters club will hold a general meeting at the British Public Schools club on Monday, starting at 8 p.m. All members are asked to attend.

Turnesa Ousted on 20th By Young Scottish Clerk

PORTHCAWL, Wales, May 23 (AP)—Six American Walker Cup players swept into the fourth round of the British amateur golf championship today, but they lost captain Willie Turnesa.

Still going strong were Bill Campbell, Sam Urzetta, Jim McHale, Charlie Coe, Dick Chapman and Frank Stranahan, the defending champion.

Bo Wininger, a newcomer to big-time golf from Pleasantville, N.J., completed the American contingent in the round of 32.

Turnesa, in trouble all the way, bowed out to David Reid, a 19-year-old Scottish coal clerk, on a stymie on the 20th hole.

Stranahan won 4 and 2 over his fellow Walker Cupper Bob Knowles, who frittered away a nine-hole two-up lead by leaving three four-foot putts hanging on the rims of the cups on the back nine.

Urzetta, the American champion, kept alive his chances of winning both titles in one year with a businesslike 5 and 4 decision over John Mill of Glasgow.

Campbell had his wedge and putter working to perfection as he disposed of Lionel Brown of England, 5 and 4.

SOUTH AMERICAN BOWS

McHale eliminated the last South American hope, Luis Alberto de Herrera of Buenos Aires, 4 and 2.

Coe defeated Irishman W. A. Kirkpatrick 3 and 2 though he trailed until the 13th hole, and Chapman, twice finalist but never a winner in this tournament, breezed home 6 and 5 over Richard Cottingham of London.

Wininger defeated Harry McAnespie Jr., of Scotland, a former British boy champion, 3 and 1 in a ragged match.

Joe Carr, Britain's brightest title threat, eliminated Dr. Nicholas Nicholas of Owensboro, Ky., 4 and 3.

Carr meets Stranahan tomorrow.

Turnesa's loss came as a shock to the British fans, who braved intermittent downpours to watch the action. A bad start put him three down at the sixth hole, and when he finally did catch up at the 12th, Reid refused to fold.

STYMIED

On the 20th, Reid's fine approach left him ten feet from the pin in two. Willie chipped from the edge to within 18 inches with his third. The young Scotsman's putt stopped on the lip of the cup, directly in front of Turnesa's ball.

Willie lofted his ball flush on top of Reid's. Both skidded inches away and it was Reid's match.

The National League pennant race became a little less torrid yesterday as the league-leading Brooklyn Dodgers unleashed their vaunted power against Pittsburgh for the second straight day and the second-place Chicago Cubs fell before New York Giants.

The Dodgers pounded out 15 hits, including a three-run homer by Gil Hodges and a grand-slam blow by Billy Cox to paste the cellar-dwelling Pirates 11-4 before 15,759 fans at Ebbets Field. The victory lifted the Dodgers into a two and a half-game lead and left the Pirates six games off the pace.

Hodges' homer was his 15th and enabled him to retain his league lead over Wally Westlake, who hit his 14th for the Pirates.

BOOST AVERAGE

Dodger rookie Cal Abrams picked up three hits for the fourth straight game to boost his league-leading average to .470.

Although outhit 10-4, the Giants nipped the Cubs 2-1 on Monte Irwin's two-run homer to give Sal Maglie his sixth victory.

St. Louis Cardinals pulled into a second-place deadlock with the Cubs by edging Boston Braves 6-5. The big break came in the fourth when the Cards scored four runs after Sam Jethroe of the Braves lost a ball in the sun after two were out. The Braves scored twice in the ninth but fell one short for the sixth time on their current road trip.

CINCINNATI WINS

Philadelphia Phils dropped a 4-3 decision to Cincinnati in 10 innings when the Reds tallied two runs off former ace reliefer Jim Konstanty in the tenth after Dick Sisler had put the Phils ahead in the top half of the inning with his fifth home run.

Lefty Mel Parnell shared the spotlight with Vern Stephens as Boston Red Sox belted St. Louis Browns 12-0, in the only American League game to survive the weather. Parnell scattered four hits and picked up as many himself.

Stephens equaled the league record for assists by a third baseman, with 10. Walt Dropo had 19 putouts at first and Ted Williams drew five walks.

Rain washed out the New York Yankees-Detroit game after three innings with the Tigers leading 7-3. Erased were a three-run homer by Detroit's Steve Souchok and a two-run blast by Joe DiMaggio.

Bike Race Jinx Broken by Ord; Wins 15-Miler

Norm Ord last night broke the jinx which has plagued members of the Victoria Cycling Club for more than three years when he took first place in the inter-city senior boys' 15-mile race at Beacon Hill Park.

Ord completed the course in 50 minutes 16.6 seconds to capture the Brock Whitney Trophy. Vancouver's Jack Ruby and Tom Howe were second and third, respectively.

Although he was not successful in winning the senior race, Ruby took first place in the junior boys' two-mile event and the class B boys' five-mile race.

His time in the two-mile race was 9:37.2. Roland Chalmers of Victoria was second and Ray Burley, also of Victoria, was third. Ruby won the class B event with a time of 15:34.8. Chalmers was second again and John Matthews of Victoria was third.

Nancy Beecher won the girls' three-mile event with a time of 20:25. Verna Hearne was second and Jessie Jones was third. All are from Victoria.

Golf--- Here's How

By SAM SNEAD
Golf's Greatest Player-Teacher

Here's how the hands pass under the upper body in the backswing. As the player continues this swing, until the back of his shoulders face the green, he will continue to take that club back and up in the same plane. When he has reached the top position his hands will be above his right shoulder. Gathering your backswing this way leaves you correctly poised at the top of the backswing for that momentary pause before you slowly start down from the top. As you start down your hips pivot, followed by your shoulder-pivot, the downswing of the arms and finally the wrist throw—all these forces blending successfully into the stroke. The result is that your clubhead is traveling at maximum speed at impact with the ball. And it's all done rhythmically. You must have rhythm to get the right timing and to prevent one part of the body being out of correct relationship with the other parts during the swing.

McIntyre Fails Near Game End; Deskmen Lose

Jack McIntyre, of Victoria Cougar fame, failed in his second mound trip as Civil Service dropped an 11-5 Senior "B" Men's Softball League decision to Esquimalt at Upper Central last night.

McIntyre pitched effective ball in the early innings but slowed in the latter frames when the Dockyarders began to hit him.

Esquimalt scored five runs in the second inning on three hits and three Civil Service miscues. The G-Men committed a total of seven errors.

A's to Receive Eagles' Award

Victoria Athletics will be presented with a civic service award by the Eagles Aerie No. 12 during Eagle Night at Royal Athletic Park tomorrow during the Yakima Bears-Athletics game.

The presentation is in conjunction with a national award being given all professional baseball clubs in towns where there is an Eagle aerie.

F.B.I. Probes Restraints On Broadcasts of Games

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP) — The Federal Bureau of Investigation is looking into restrictions placed upon broadcasting of professional and amateur games, it was announced today. But at almost the same time, bills were introduced in Congress to make sports exempt from anti-trust laws.

Attorney General J. Howard McGrath said the justice department is receiving a "substantial number of complaints" about "alleged restraints imposed by professional baseball upon the broadcasting and televising of of games."

COVERS ALL SPORTS

But, he said, the investigation will cover all sports, including college football.

The bills were introduced by four members of Congress. Senator Edwin Johnson (Dem.-Colo.), president of the western league, representative A. Herlong (Dem.-Fla.), former president of the Florida state baseball league; representative Melvin Price (Dem.-Ill.), a reformed sports writer, and representative Wilbur Mills (Dem.-Ark.), who describes himself as just a fan.

Although all four apparently had baseball chiefly in mind, their similar bills did not name baseball, but said that organized sports should be exempt from the anti-trust laws.

LAWS SCARE LEADERS

These laws long have frightened leaders of organized baseball.

Here's why:

When a player signs a professional contract, he becomes the property of the team with which he signs. He cannot peddle his services to another club if he doesn't like the terms he's getting from the team which signed him. "Chattel" has been the word used by some critics to describe such an athlete.

Does the perpetual ownership of this player—which is provided for under what is known as baseball's reserve clause—violate anti-trust or anti-monopoly laws? If it does, the entire baseball structure, as now known, could topple.

A House of Representatives judiciary committee has scheduled a hearing on this question. It probably will start in July.

MORE TROUBLES

Baseball has further troubles. Each team controls the rights to baseball broadcasts within a radius of 50 miles from its park.

In Washington, for example, major league games from other cities are broadcast here regularly during the day. That's because Washington Senators normally play at night. Any rival broadcast must be over 30 minutes before the game is to start here.

Pitcher, One Hand Wins 7-0 Game

GREAT FALLS, Mont., May 23 (AP).—Pitcher Bob Lightbody has only one hand but that was all he needed last night as he hurled Great Falls to a three-hit 7-0 victory over Boise in the Class "C" Pioneer League.

Lightbody, a left-hander, was born with only one hand. He has pitched in relief duty this season and showed enough to win a starting assignment.

While delivering the ball, he tucks his glove under his right armpit. As soon as he lets the pitch go, he slips the glove on his left hand to field anything batted his way.

When batting, Lightbody uses the stub of his right arm to steady the bat. Last year he led the Helena City League with a .419 average.

Icing Rule Aimed at Gang Attacks One of Many Adopted by C.A.H.A.

HALIFAX, May 23 (CP).—The Canadian Amateur Hockey Association today adoped a new icing rule, designed to cut down on ganging attacks and rough-house tactics in the corners.

Under the new rule, a puck is called for icing if it passes the red goal line from outside the blue line. Previously it had to be from the centre red line.

George Slater of the Quebec [illegible] committee, said this would eliminate some of the end-zone ganging attacks because it would tend to have the puck carried over the blue line rather than shot in the corners.

FEWER INJURIES

It would also reduce injuries by eliminating some of the corner battles for possession of a puck shot in.

The amendment carried 14 to 4.

Several other new rules and amendments to old ones were adopted as the association held its first open sessions of its 38th annual convention.

These included:

1. A spare goalie will not be allowed to serve a penalty called against the playing goalie.

2. A minor penalty will be called against a goalie using oversize equipment but play will not be stopped for measurement.

3. Referees now will be empowered to award penalties after the game ends, until the players have reached their dressing rooms.

NEW FACE-OFF SPOT

4. The face-off on delayed penalties will be at the spot where the defending team loses possession of the puck, not at the spot where the offence was committed.

5. A manager, trainer or coach, ordered from the bench, must go to the dressing room and will not be permitted to remain in the stands.

6. Any manager, trainer or coach who throws any object on the ice or molests an opposing player will be ordered to the dressing room.

7. A misconduct penalty will be called against any player leaving the bench to enter any altercation on the ice. Previously the penalty was called only if he entered the argument.

GOAL CHANGES

8. When a player in control of the puck is fouled from behind and thus prevented from having a clear shot on an unattended goal, he will be awarded a goal.

9. When a player with the puck is in position to have a shot on an unattended goal without any opposing player before him and is interfered with by any opposing player illegally entering the game, he will be awarded a goal. The previous rule covered only guarded goals.

10. A minor penalty will be served by a player, to be named by the coach or manager, on a team delaying the game.

11. A player leaving the bench to deliver instructions to a man on the ice will be given a minor penalty unless he remains as a substitute.

12. A minor penalty will be awarded any player using a kick shot.

13. The C.A.H.A. will follow the National Hockey League in any increase in the size of the goal crease but will retain the present shape.

Secretary George Dudley and President D. G. Grimston both voted against the new icing rule.

FEAR THRILL LOSS

Dudley said the big thrill in hockey now was in action around the goal. There would be "precious little" of this under the new rule. It would produce worse hockey than the kitty-bar-the-door style which resulted in the forward-pass rule.

He said offensive attacks now were stopped at the blue line about 75 per cent of the time and the new rule would tighten the defence, thus resulting in even less goal-mouth action.

He predicted that if the rule was adopted the Association would toss it out by the first of next year.

The C.A.H.A. also decided to empower branches to eliminate body checking in juvenile and lower leagues if they desire.

A British Columbia resolution asking for an extra player as reserve in case of injuries during the game was thrown out. Slater said some player could fake an injury if he wasn't doing so well and thus gain the services of the spare.

Tost, Raimondi With Chiefs

WENATCHEE, May 23 (AP)—Pitchers Lou Tost and Walt Raimondi were added yesterday to Wenatchee's Western International League baseball club roster.

Tost went to the major leagues several years ago from Seattle after ranking as one of the Rainiers' top tossers.

Addition of the pair boosted the roster to the 17-player limit, after southpaw Dave Dahle had been recalled by Oakland.

New York Stocks Slump; Prices Down at Toronto

By The Associated Press

A sinking spell that turned into an acute setback pulled the New York stock market down yesterday for the third straight session.

Concerted buying support for major divisions was almost absent except for brief periods.

Railroads not only displayed weakness but discouraged buying elsewhere in the list.

Railroads occupy a place of prominence at the moment.

They reached a new low for the year yesterday.

The A.P. average of 60 stocks lost 80 cents at $91.10. The low for the year is $89.40 reached January 3.

Selling pressure never was great despite the net loss. Volume came to 1,540,000 shares as compared with 1,440,000 shares Tuesday.

MONTREAL EASIER

A steady to easier tone prevailed during the session on the Montreal Stock Exchange and Curb Market.

Industrial declines outnumbered gains around three to one near the close and ranged mostly in small fractions.

Papers, senior oils, senior metals, beverages, steels, textiles and chemicals favored the minus column.

Top loser was International Paper, down 1½ points to 52⅛.

Mines declined over a wide front. Losses ran down to as much as 25 cents.

Western oils eased narrowly.

TORONTO DOWN

Prices drifted downward on the Toronto stock market.

Several mining issues chalked up large volumes but trading in most of the market was dull. Volume was about 1,250,000 shares.

Base metals showed a wide list of moderate losses although several leaders were ahead.

Western oils were mixed.

Golds weakened quietly and generally showed little change or trading.

WINNIPEG FLAX STRONG

Flax showed independent strength as other grains moved lower on the Winnipeg exchange. Trading was moderately active.

Oats and barley were irregular in early trade but prices fell off as offerings increased. Rye moved lower under selling attributed to American accounts.

Flax advanced for maximum 15-cent gains under processor buying which found little for sale.

Export loadings of Canadian wheat totaled 1,200,000 bushels.

SLIP THREE DAYS

For the third day prices continued to slip on the Vancouver Stock Exchange.

Major oils were down.

Golden Opportunity Claimed

Big Market for Goods, Investment Held Waiting for Canada in Israel

TORONTO, May 23 (CP)—Israel offers a big market for both goods and investment from Canada, in the opinion of its representatives who are here for the Canadian National Trade Fair, May 28-June 8.

The delegation, which will appear at the fair for the first time, with a wide assortment of exhibits, held a reception last night. Henry A. Shadmon, representing the Chamber of Commerce of Tel-Aviv and Jaffa, stated that in 1950 Israel bought from other countries $285,000,000 worth of goods, and sold to other countries only $36,000,000. In this trade, Canada sold to Israel $14,000,000, and bought only about $500,000.

OFFERS MARKET

Mr. Shadmon said that Israel's population is increasing by millions and that great projects are afoot to develop the country. In this condition, he added, she would for a considerable time be a big market for those with goods to sell or money to invest.

"Creation of new industrial and agricultural enterprises is our first and most important task. Of total imports, 26 per cent was foodstuffs, about 14 per cent raw materials, and 60 per cent finished and semi-finished goods. In this 60 per cent lies a tremendous opportunity for any commercial and industrial firm that wishes to co-operate with us with regard to investment prospects."

MANY EXHIBITS

He put Israel's present needs, if there were means of meeting them, at $500,000,000 in semi-processed and finished goods, and he stated that Canadian money spent on goods from Israel or in investment in Israel, would be used for the purchase of Canadian goods and raw materials.

Among Israel's exhibits at the trade fair will be textiles and fashions, diamonds, silver, metal and brass novelties, embroidery, oil paintings, toys, calendars, greeting cards, gramophone records, religious objects and books.

Metal Buying Exceeds Defence Output

NEW YORK, May 23 (AP).—Metal requirements are expanding rapidly while actual defence output and subcontracting are lagging far behind buying authorizations, The Iron Age says today.

"Although major programs such as tanks and planes are still several months from high production, their material needs are being scheduled and produced now," the national metalworking weekly says.

The publication explained that this is due to the long "lead time" required for some parts.

"For example, a producer of tank treads will require a lead time of about six months for steel. This includes delivery of steel to the forging subcontractor, fabrication of the parts by another subcontractor and final assembly at the prime contractor's plant."

The publication estimates steelmaking operations this week are scheduled at 103.5 per cent of rated capacity — down half a point from the previous week.

Public Control Step Nearer For Tramways

MONTREAL, May 23 (CP)—Public ownership of Montreal's street railways moved a step forward today with acceptance by United Securities, Ltd., of the Montreal Transportation Commission's offer for outstanding shares.

Shareholders of United Securities, who own 38,336 of the 70,000 outstanding shares of Montreal Tramways Company, voted almost unanimously to accept the $60 a share offered.

Through this action, the transportation commission will own 54.7 per cent of the capital stock of the company and needs to acquire only 12 per cent more before the June 26 deadline.

Total cost of the 70,000 shares of the privately-owned company will amount to $4,200,000.

CREATED LAST YEAR

The transportation commission was created last year to acquire ownership of Montreal Tramways Company and operate it as a public service.

The commission needs 66 per cent of the stock to put it in a legal position to force other shareholders to sell at $60.

Unless two-thirds of the stock is acquired by the commission, it has the right to go to arbitration and have the selling priced fixed by a three-man board.

The transportation commission's recent offer of $60 a share had court approval.

BONDS UNCHANGED

MONTREAL, May 23 (CP) — Trading was exceptionally quiet on the Montreal bond market today and prices were generally unchanged.

London Market Shows Strength

LONDON, May 23 (Reuters).—The start of a new account today brought quietly-firmer conditions to most sections of the stock exchange.

Buyers were selecting first-grade issues in the industrial market, feature of which was a rise of 3s to Rolls Royce at 122s.

The early success of the 15,000,000 world bank loan aided gilt-edged stocks, which closed with scattered fractional gains.

Renewed investment inquiry was reported for oils but tins and rubbers eased on the possible Malayan freeze of part of the proceeds of sales of these commodities.

Fresh buying created gains of up to two points in Japanese bonds. German issues were firm.

Gold and copper shares moved higher. ## Motorists Given Twofold Warning

AROUND TOWN

Police Chief John Blackstock issued two warnings to motorists using parts of our downtown streets today.

He said all parked cars must be moved from the parade route, assembly point and dispersal area by 7 a.m. today. Motorists who do not comply with this request won't find their cars there when they return, the chief warned.

He also said that he has given all members of his department instruction to be on the look out for drunken driving.

Perhaps doodling is allowed but not chewing of toothpicks or pins by lawyers when examining a witness in court.

County Court Judge H. H. Shandley instructed lawyer A. P. Dawe to remove a toothpick from his mouth. "It's not allowed in court."

Mr. Dawe confessed it wasn't a toothpick but a pin.

"Well, take it out, anyway," snapped the judge.

Add enough mayonnaise to bind, season well with lemon juice, serve on crisp lettuce leaves or use mixture to stuff raw tomatoes or raw green peppers.

Telephone Company Seeks Increase; Would Add 85 Cents Month to Bills

About 44,000 Vancouver Island subscribers, including 25,000 in Victoria, are affected by the latest B.C. Telephone Company application for an increase in both exchange and long distance telephone rates.

Under the new exchange rates sought, a Victoria subscriber now paying $2.95 a month for two-party residential service would pay $3.80. The similar service in Vancouver would jump from $3.40 to $3.85 monthly.

Application for the boosts was filed yesterday with the Board of Transport Commissioners at Ottawa.

The increased exchange rates, the company estimated, would provide $1,528,000 annually or a 12.5 per cent revenue boost. New long distance rates would provide $667,826 or 12.08 per cent increased revenue annually.

The company pointed out that [illegible] long distance rates would not necessarily represent an across-the-board increase. Most rates would rise by various percentages, some would remain unchanged, while others would drop.

The proposed long distance rates would remain based on airline mileage, but with the scale revised.

INCREASED SPREAD

The proposed schedule has increased the spread between rates for station-to-station and person-to-person calls but has reduced the difference between day and night rates.

The company claims that new increases in taxes and wages amounting to $2,202,527 per year and not covered by the board's rate judgment last October have made present rates inadequate.

It was claimed that wages will boost costs another $893,000 from June 1, making the total of additional wage costs from 1950, $1,341,150.

Pictures for All Tastes

Only Abstracts Missing From Art Centre Show

By JOHN KYLE, A.R.C.A.

An exhibition at the Art Centre, Broughton Street, shows the work of Petley Jones who, while born in Edmonton, spent a period of years in Britain and France and has finally settled in British Columbia.

This artist signs his pictures "Petley" and he has sent a series of pictures to suit all tastes, except those who appreciate abstract. He has no abstract pictures nor has he had to conjure any pictures from his subconscious mind.

As a colorist Petley is above average; "Autumn on the Thames" has a charming harmonious effect and although "Trois Filles Francaises" has a good scheme of color with cleverly defined pattern, yet the robot looking "Trois Filles" don't make the picture. "The Fair" is a little gem and "Spring" is also well treated.

Then there are a number of painted heads such as "Dierdrie" and "Renee," but the boldly painted "Self Portrait" is his best, notwithstanding the dashing "Le Vieux Beau."

It is hard to understand his including the Picassoesque "Head With a Blue Background." In fact the larger figure subjects make one marvel and shake the head.

Then we turn to "Woods, Georgian Bay, Algoma" and to "Early Morning at Marlow," and to "Bateau de Peches," and concede that Petley can paint well if he will just be himself and not worry about brutalizing the "human form divine."

The exhibition will be open all week. Do not miss seeing the examples from the brush of this modern artist.

Runyon Fable Stars Hope As Tipster

CITY MOVIES

By RON BAIRD

Hollywood has come up with another Damon Runyon story on Broadway characters, this time starring Bob Hope as THE LEMON DROP KID (Paramount) and while not pure Runyon, it nevertheless provides a good many laughs.

Hope plays the part of a race-track tout whose wrong tip on the horses costs him a $10,000 debt to a big-time gambler. To find the money, he has to resort to a variety of underhanded deals in which he requires the services of several of his equally larcenous friends.

Paramount's star does a pretty convincing job as a Damon Runyon character, and the studio has managed to find quite a number of other players to fit the Runyon style.

SONGS, TOO

Songstress Marilyn Maxwell is added to provide a few songs and act as a foil for Hope's gags, which, in true style, click along every few seconds.

This isn't pure Runyon by a long shot, but his story line is adhered to without too much deviation, and Hope himself is in fine fettle.

Some of the supporting players come as close as anybody to looking and acting the part of the characters which Runyon so dearly loved and wrote about.

For Hope fans, this is a must—for others, there is a lot to laugh at and Broadway's master story-teller would probably be quite happy with the result.

Possession of Narcotics Sends City Man to Jail

Yong Yet Ming, 555 Cormorant, charged with being in possession of narcotics, was sentenced to one year in jail and fined $200 when he appeared in city police court yesterday.

Ming was arrested by R.C.M.P. shortly after he stepped off the Vancouver boat on May 12. He was carrying 95 capsules of heroin.

Keinpe Spoor, 2718 Rock Bay, was fined $35 for driving a motorcycle without a current driver's licence. He pleaded guilty to the charge.

* * *

LICENCE SUSPENDED

C. J. Woodley, 2310 Howard, pleaded guilty to a careless driving charge and was fined $40. His licence was also suspended pending a report to the motor vehicle branch.

Joseph E. Engels, 3083 Island Highway and James T. Brooks, 515 Johnson, were each fined $5 for failing to have a sawdust truck properly covered.

Magistrate H. C. Hall imposed a $5 fine against L. B. Curtis, 747 Yates, when he pleaded guilty to a charge of failing to pay a hospital insurance premium by the due date.

A charge of careless driving against Harry Adams, 1117 Johnson, was remanded to May 29 for trail. He pleaded not guilty.

No Decision Yet Reached On Light Keeper's Post

British Columbia Transport Department officials had not reached a decision yesterday on the request of Mrs. Elizabeth Rife that she be allowed to take over as keeper of the lonely Egg Island lighthouse.

The request by the 35-year-old estranged wife of a Victoria man came following the suicide death of former keeper Lawrence Dupuis with whom Mrs. Rife and her 15-year-old son, Stanley, lived for two years.

"ONLY LIFE"

Dupuis took his own life while Mrs. Rife was visiting Victoria, apparently on the misunderstanding that she had become re-united with her husband here.

Unconcerned by the loneliness of the small 220-yard-wide rock situated 300 miles north of Vancouver, Mrs. Rife says it is the "only life" for her.

Meanwhile, a relief lighthouse keeper from Prince Rupert has taken over at Egg Island until someone is permanently appointed.

QUITE CAPABLE

N. A. Beketov, Marine Department agent for the Northern British Columbia coast, says Mrs. Rife is quite capable of handling the job but that a final decision would have to come from the department.

The keeper must keep the light lit, keep the horn blowing during fog and send out weather reports thrice daily.

Mrs. Rife is an ardent amateur radio operator and photographer and contributes to magazines.

The lighthouse tender calls at Egg Island every three months with grocery supplies, mail, books and household supplies.

Prospects Bright

Slight Decrease Evident In April's Tourist Influx

Recreational travel to British Columbia continued at a steady rate during April, it was learned yesterday from the Provincial Department of Trade and Industry.

Although figures, based on incomplete returns, showed a slight decrease from the total for April last year, the four-month total for 1951 showed a 20 per cent increase over the same period in 1950.

VEHICLE TOTAL

During April this year 12,999 foreign vehicles entered British Columbia at border points on travelers' vehicle permits, compared with 13,049 during the same period in 1950.

The four-month total stood at 37,987, compared with 31,592 in 1950.

E. G. Rowebottom, deputy minister of trade and industry, said that judging from the number of reservations reported by travel agencies and transportation companies, everything points to a substantial increase in visitors to British Columbia this year.

Tax Will Remain On Fire Apparatus

Finance Minister Douglas Abbott thinks it would be "unwise" to allow fire-fighting apparatus exemption from excise and sales taxes.

City Council recently supported a Kitchener resolution making the request.

"I thought it unwise to make exceptions . . . this year in view of the pressing need for revenue for defence purposes," Mr. Abbott informed the city yesterday.

Partnership Judgment Reserved

Decision of whether a co-owner has the right to deal with a chattel in his possession without consulting his partner was reserved in County Court yesterday by Judge H. H. Shandley.

Owen Lloyd, co-owner of the race horse Hindu Fleet, claimed [illegible] Mr. and Mrs. Horner Harrison, had no authority to move the animal without his permission.

HORSE INJURED

The civil action arose after the horse reared and suffered a severe cut as it was being loaded on to a trailer by Mr. Harrison.

Judge Shandley dismissed the Lloyd claims for damages on the injury to the horse and that the trailer was unsuitable for use, but reserved decision on whether Mr. Harrison had authority to move the horse without authority of Mr. Lloyd.

Residents Planning Playground

Children in the Cadboro Bay area will soon have a brand new playground in Maynard Park if residents' efforts are carried out as planned.

Children in Cadboro Bay, Queenswood and Ten Mile Point will have access to the playground. Maynard Park is 575 feet by 220 feet with frontages on Maynard Road and Hobbs Road.

The property, according to Mrs. W. D. Osborn, was first acquired in 1928 by Frank Hobbs when he was chairman of the Saanich School Board and later gazetted as a park.

MONEY DONATED

Saanich municipality has made a donation of $100 toward purchase of equipment for the playground, which will be quite close to the new Cadboro Bay School, opening this autumn.

A public meeting will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday in St. George's Hall. All parents interested in the project are urged to attend.

Carson Opens Court Tenders

Tenders were opened yesterday by Public Works Minister E. C. Carson for construction of a new two-story reinforced concrete courthouse building at Chilliwack.

Tenders were as follows: Bennett & White Construction Co., Ltd., $299,667; E. H. Shockley & Son, Ltd., $267,821; Mutual Construction Company Ltd., $255,900; Commonwealth Construction Co., Ltd., $278,905.

Three Main Differences Noted In Hospital Insurance Schemes

By WILLIAM MAVOR

What basic differences are provided in hospital insurance schemes operated by British Columbia and Alberta governments?

Some of the answers are provided in an article printed in the current issue of The Canadian Doctor, titled "Hospitalization for $1 a Day."

Three differences at once appear outstanding from the article, those of charges for "extras," eligibility of hospitals and distribution of costs.

In Alberta the $1 a day charge to the patient covers the standard ward accommodation and routine services ordinarily provided without extra charge. The patient must pay the difference on private or semi-private ward rates, as is required in this province, and also meet costs of special drugs, operating room, X-rays, laboratory and pathology charges. Most of the latter charges are paid fully by the B.C. Hospital Insurance scheme.

PLAN RESTRICTED

The Alberta plan is also restricted to hospitals where agreements have been signed by the municipality concerned. Emergency patients, however, may use any hospital.

In this province all hospitals are included in the scheme and receive benefit of payments under the H.I.S.

Payments are made, except in case of emergencies, in Alberta only to hospitals where municipalities have signed a prescribed agreement with approved hospitals.

The plan goes into operation when a municipal council has passed the necessary by-law and signed the agreement.

Distribution of costs has a direct bearing upon ability to pay, according to the article, since the share borne by the municipality is based on real property values.

HALF REPAID

With hospitals graded and on a [illegible] to $5.50, the patient pays $1 per day, plus any extras mentioned, and the balance is paid by the municipality with whom the agreement has been signed.

Half of the municipal charge, however, is repaid by the provincial treasury.

"It automatically follows that people with the more valuable property pay a proportionately high share of the total," it was reported.

It was reported that consideration is being given to legislation which will make provision for non-ratepayers to become eligible under the scheme, thus increasing the two-thirds of the entire population of Alberta now qualified.

It's the 24th of May
THE QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY

Hurrah . . . hurrah . . . it shines the sun, today will be full of frolic & fun. The day our City comes into its own, idle the wheel of the old grindstone. Let's unarm up the kids, thru the mob wade, let's all traipse off to See The Parade. For our favorite spot let's go & hunt, others will help get the children to front. Then down the street, here comes the band, ah . . . there's the leader . . . in command. "Gee . . . look! look! that float, oh say what a honey. & see that clown with his face so funny." This is the spirit of today, let's all laugh . . . clapp & horrar. We could do with some laughs, young & old. "Mamey . . . look at those marchers all scarlet & gold." "Oh . . . . see Daddy . . . all shimmery sheen, here comes, our beautiful Queen. Oh . . . isn't she pretty in her regal dress, how lovely too is each Princess." Yes . . . this is the spirit of our town, so let's go, & let our hair down. Let's pitch in there, not loaf in the shade, it's OUR big day & OUR parade. Let's show our guests from other lands, we're NOT as some say, just a bunch of clams. Let's throw confetti, our hearts entwine, get tangled together in serpentine. Let's honk horns, and wave some flags, shout & clapp when they do the zigg-zagge. Holler & scream, pretend for a day, we're all little children this Empire Day. Let's bring a nod from the face upon that other Queen on the Parliament lawn. And watch cold marble smile & charm, as she warmly approves & waves her arm. Let's get that spirit we had in school, remember HOW . . . we did shout & loaf. So keep your eye on the bouncing ball, all sing together, loud & tall . . .

It's the twenty . . . fourth . . . of . . . May,
It's the . . . Queen's . . . Birthday,
If . . . you . . . don't . . . give us . . . a holiday,
We'll . . . all . . . run . . . away.

Let's do it again, harmonize this time, you out in the Willows . . . start the first line. Now . . . you in Vic West . . . take it on, come in Esquimalt . . . O.K. . . . . let's go. That's it . . . . you in Oak Bay EVERYBODY now . . . "on the 24th of May, etc., etc., etc. . . . That's swell . . . I can hear you way out here.

Pension Legislation Forecast This Year

OTTAWA, May 23 (CP)—Representatives of Canada's 11 governments today began consideration of the legislation to implement an enlarged old-age pensions program.

At the preliminary meeting of a two-day Federal-Provincial conference on pensions, delegates heard an outline of the legislation which the Federal Government plans to introduce in Parliament this year.

Health Minister Martin used the term "this year" in saying when the Federal legislation will be introduced.

FALL SESSION SEEN

His statement and rumors in parliamentary corridors led to speculation that a fall session of Parliament may be called. It was reported a Liberal Party caucus was told that a good deal of work remains to be done and that it is unlikely it can be completed by the end of June, the prorogation target.

The outline of the Federal Government's pensions legislation was given in private by Mr. Martin after he and representatives of the Provincial Governments had made introductory statements at a public session.

In his public statement, Mr. Martin referred to the legislation in general terms. He said it will provide for Federal pensions of $40 a month to all 70 and over regardless of means. It will authorize the government to share on a 50-50 basis with the provinces the cost of $40-a-month pensions to the needy between 65 and 70.

CONTINUED ASSISTANCE

Provision also will be made for continued assistance to the blind.

The new program will increase to 715,000 from 305,000 the number of persons 70 and over in receipt of pensions. It will boost Federal old-age pensions costs to $378,000,000 from $120,000,000 a year.

Hon. W. A. Goodfellow, welfare minister for Ontario, said his government welcomed the removal of the means test on pensions for persons 70 and over. But he wondered if it was consistent thinking to keep the "undesirable" means test for the 65-69 age group.

Civil Servants Give Blood At Rate of 50 Per Hour

At the rate of 50 an hour, 400 Provincial Government employees lined up in the Legislative Buildings yesterday to give blood at a special Red Cross blood clinic.

The clinic was organized by the local branch of the British Columbia Government Employees' Association with the co-operation of the Health Department and the Red Cross.

In the first party of donors on hand when the clinic opened its doors at 9.30 a.m. were Education Minister W. T. Straith, Dr. G. F. Amyot, deputy minister of health, and R. A. Pennington, deputy provincial secretary.

It was the first time a blood clinic has been held at the Legislative Buildings. A similar clinic may make similar one-day visit to the buildings in the autumn.

Battalion Reunion Held By Ex-Members of 88th

"Old sweats" of Victoria's 88th Battalion last night celebrated the 35th anniversary of their leaving for overseas May 23, 1916, and their 25th annual reunion.

Some 85 former members joined in the toast to the battalion, proposed by Thomas Dempster and replied to by A. D. Crease, former company commander.

At the close of the evening, the old soldiers "fell in" outside the hall and marched to the Cenotaph to deposit a wreath in memory of their comrades.

Earlier, Mrs. Mary Mould, wife of R. H. Mould, secretary of the association for the past 11 years, was presented with flowers and a silver bowl by Major Benjamin Harrison of Nanaimo, former second in command of the battalion, and J. J. Coles, reunion committee president and one-time bugler with the Battalion.

Letters and telegrams of congratulation from former members of the Battalion in all parts of Canada, including several from patients at the Veterans' Hospital, were read out by Mr. Moulds.

Unique Title Due Hamber On Retirement

VANCOUVER, May 23 (CP)—Hon. Eric Werge Hamber is expected to become the first Chancellor Emeritus in the history of University of British Columbia and the first in Canada when he retires after seven distinguished years in the university's highest office.

The Board of Governors may announce soon the creation of the new title to be conferred on the 71-year-old business and cultural leader who already holds most of the high honors of the province.

At a private ceremony Tuesday night the Board paid highest tribute to the work of Chancellor Hamber through the University's most hazardous yet successful years.

He was presented with an illuminated scroll in recognition of his services to the university since he took over the chancellorship in September, 1944.

The scroll, prepared by Mrs. Sally Creighton, one of the governors, was signed by all the members of the board.

Royal Navy Captain Recalls Sioux Race

MARINE AND TRAVEL NEWS

A Royal Navy skipper who recalls racing the H.M.C.S. Sioux 90 miles through Korean waters to rescue ten downed United States airmen is visiting here on his way home to England.

Born in Kingston, Ont., he is Capt. P. W. Brock, who will take up a new post at British Admiralty headquarters after serving 19 months as commander of the R.N. cruiser Kenya in the Far East.

Capt. Brock said he was fortunate in the race with the Sioux, that he had a seven-mile start and therefore arrived at the scene first.

Since buying a house at Walton-on-Thames in Surrey six years ago, he has spent only a fortnight at home, he said. He is looking forward to a long stay there when he returns to England.

Mrs. Brock arrived here from England last week to meet her husband at the airport after his flight across the Pacific.

AUTHORITIES HELP

The trans-Pacific flight was arranged, he says, with the help from Canadian naval and army authorities in the Orient.

He is well acquainted with Canadian U.N. naval forces. The Sioux and the Athabaskan both served for some time with the Kenya off Korea.

Capt. Brock is the son of a former dean of science at the University of British Columbia. He came to B.C. with his father in 1914 and later joined the Canadian Navy as a cadet at Esquimalt in 1918.

Later he transferred to the Royal Navy and served as a midshipman.

During the World War he served as executive officer aboard the cruiser Mauritius in the Mediterranean.

Capt. Brock is at present visiting Rear Admiral W. B. Creery and Capt. Jeffry Brock, R.C.N., a distant relative.

NAVY'S PART

Local navy personnel will play a major part in the parade and other activities during today's festivities.

Taking part in the Gorge regatta in the afternoon will be 12 whalers with crews from training unit H.M.C.S. Malahat and one from the Vancouver reserve unit H.M.C.S. Discovery.

Other boats will be manned by crews representing various naval departments, including the mechanical training school.

In the parade will be the R.C.N. Band with a color party, H.M.C.S. Naden personnel, four platoons of cadets, three platoons of seamen, a field gun and crew, four decorated floats and naval vehicles.

* * *

SHIPS DUE

The Mv. Jessmore is due here from Cowichan Bay at the end of the week to load 700,000 feet of lumber for the United Kingdom.

Shipping officials say the Mv. Welsh Prince will arrive May 30 from Britain with a general cargo.

* * *

WEATHERSHIP LOADING

Department of Transport officials say the weathership Estevan will leave at the beginning of next week for waters near the Queen Charlotte Sound.

The ship is loading now and will stop at Pine Island and Bull Harbor.

* * *

FIRING PRACTICE

Local shipping is warned of firing practices to be carried out in an arc between Race Rocks and Brotchie Ledge Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and 3.30 p.m. to 5.30 p.m.

Danger radius will be 22,000 yards.

* * *

BUOYS REMOVED

Department of Transport officials announce that buoys No. 24, 22 and 18 in the Fraser River have been removed and that additional buoys may be moved at any time without further notice owing to the freshet in the river.

NATIVE POPULATION

Canada's census in 1871 showed 83 per cent of the population was born in Canada; now it may be higher.

Canada had 5,340 persons aged 90 and over in 1921; by 1949 the figure had reached 17,000.

Safeguards Needed

Withdrawal of Troops Risky, Declares Bradley

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP).—General Omar Bradley said today South Korea would remain under constant threat of new Communist attacks if a peace settlement called for withdrawal of United Nations forces without any safeguards.

The chairman of the joint chiefs of staff said cease-fire terms must contain "certain safeguards" against a renewal of Red aggression—and will involve more than just the withdrawal of Chinese and United Nations forces from Korea.

"The question of decision that is going to have to be reached . . . is whether or not that (withdrawal) is acceptable from all angles—political, military and so forth—and it is going to involve more than just the simple things, that we both withdraw," he told the Senate inquiry studying the reasons behind the recall of General Douglas MacArthur.

THAT OR NOTHING

"I think it is going to have to have certain other safeguards . . . but it may boil down to a question of whether or not you accept that or nothing."

General Bradley said that from a military viewpoint a withdrawal by the Chinese and U.N. forces would leave the Communists "in a more advantageous position to renew the conflict."

Earlier, he said that General MacArthur's own field intelligence should have spotted the big Chinese build-up in North Korea last autumn before it drove his army into retreat.

General Bradley strongly suggested that General MacArthur should have resigned his Far Eastern commands before he began taking public issue with the Truman administration over Far East policy.

He also said:

There is danger the Russians might move into oil-rich Iran and start another war.

MacARTHUR'S IDEA

It was General MacArthur who first proposed sending American ground troops into Korea to check the North Korean invasion.

None of President Truman's top advisers, either military or civilian, pressed for General MacArthur's dismissal, although all favored the move.

The Government decided last August to send military help to the Chinese nationalist forces on Formosa—and most of the $300,000,000 in aid recommended already has been sent.

Bill Affects Meat Packers

OTTAWA, May 23 (CP)—A bill to bring large meat-packing companies under the Federal labor code was given first reading in the Commons today.

Sponsored by Alistair Stewart (CCF-Winnipeg North), it would make the act apply to such companies that operate in two or more provinces.

The bill seeks collective bargaining in the industry on a national basis.

McIntyre Rites Set Saturday

Born in Scotland and resident here for 40 years, Mrs. McIntyre was the wife of Edward Victor McIntyre.

She leaves, besides her husband, four sons, Edward C. and Robin G. of Victoria; Neil C. in Australia and Donald B. in Alberta; one sister, Mrs. F. R. Moore, and one brother, Robert Malcolm, both of Victoria.

Also surviving are four grandchildren.

Funeral services will be followed by cremation. Relatives have requested that no flowers be sent.
